International Law and the Environment Tuomas Kuokkanen, 2002-01-01 This work contributes to the study of international environmental law addressing its development over three time periods the traditional period the modern era and the post modern period It challenges the reader to think about the subject and its development within a broader framework

Komplexität und Widerspruch in der Architektur Robert Venturi, 2007-03-07 Robert Venturi geht zu den Architekten die die Debatte über die Ästhetik der Architektur durch Schriften und eigene Projekte wieder in Gang gebracht haben Sein Buch ist ein Plädoyer zur Wiederaneignung des mannigfaltigen Reichtums der Baukunst ein Damm gegen die Sintflut von Funktionalität und Purismus

Architecture on the Edge of Postmodernism Robert A. M. Stern, 2009 Robert A M Stern is one of contemporary architecture's most influential figures with a career encompassing every facet of the profession he has a flourishing private practice he is a noted authority on New York architectural history his own architectural work has been featured in numerous monographs and as Dean of the Yale School of Architecture he has undeniably shaped the field of architectural education As a preeminent force in the discourse of the field Stern was one of the first critics to use and analyze the term postmodern in architecture This collection of essays Stern's first brackets the years defined by the changes in architectural thinking introduced by Robert Venturi in 1966 and the exhibition Deconstructivist Architecture at the Museum of Modern Art in 1988 Throughout Stern provides close readings of architectural events and offers firsthand accounts of transformations in architectural thinking during a critical period

The Pace of Modernity O. Bradley Bassler, 2012 Wittgenstein said that philosophers should greet each other not by saying Hello but rather Take your time But what is time Time is money but this points to an even better answer to this basic question for our modern epoch time is acceleration In a cultural system which stresses economic efficiency the quicker route is always the more prized if not always the better one Wittgenstein's dictum thus constitutes an act of rebellion against the dominant vector of our culture but as such it threatens to become quickly anti modern We need an approach to reading our information rich culture which is not reactionary but rather meets its accelerated condition In this book O Bradley Bassler develops a toolkit for acute reading of our modern pace not through withdrawal but rather through active engagement with a broad range of disciplines The main characters in this drama comprise a cast of master readers Hannah Arendt Jean Starobinski Harold Bloom Angus Fletcher Hans Blumenberg and John Ashbery with secondary figures drawn from the readers and critics whom this central group suggests We must develop a vocabulary of pacing reflecting our modern distance from classical sources and the concomitant acceleration of our contemporary condition Only in this way can we begin to situate the phenomenon of modernity within the larger scales of human culture and history

Public and Private in Thought and Practice Jeff Weintraub, Krishan Kumar, 1997-03-15 These essays by widely respected scholars in fields ranging from social and political theory to historical sociology and cultural studies illuminate the significance of the public private distinction for an increasingly wide range of debates Commenting on controversies surrounding such issues as abortion rights identity politics and the requirements of democratization many of these essays clarify crucial processes that have shaped the culture and institutions of modern societies In contexts ranging from friendship the family and personal life to nationalism democratic citizenship the role of women in social and political life and the contrasts between western and post Communist societies this book brings out the ways the various uses of the public private distinction are simultaneously distinct and interconnected Public and Private in Thought and Practice will be of interest to students and scholars in disciplines including politics law philosophy history sociology and women s studies Contributors include Jeff Weintraub Allan Silver Craig Calhoun Daniela Gobetti Jean L Cohen Jean Bethke Elshtain Alan Wolfe Krishan Kumar David Brain Karen Hansen Marc Garcelon and Oleg Kharkhordin

Robert Venturi's Complexity and Contradiction at Fifty Martino Stierli, David Bruce Brownlee, Alexander Scrimgeour, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2019 The ten selected essays a number of which were presented at a three day international conference co organized by MoMA to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Complexity and Contradiction in 2016 address diverse issues such as the book s relationship to Venturi s own built oeuvre and its significance in the contemporary landscape Additional short commentaries by contemporary practitioners attest to Complexity s enduring influence on architectural practice Together these two volumes expand the horizons of and introduce a new generation to Venturi s Gentle manifesto

Creating Through Mind and Emotions Mário Ming Kong, Maria do Rosário Monteiro, Maria João Pereira Neto, 2022-07-01 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI Creating Through Mind and Emotions were compiled to establish a multidisciplinary platform for presenting interacting and disseminating research This platform also aims to foster the awareness and discussion on Creating Through Mind and Emotions focusing on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design and Social Sciences and its importance and benefits for the sense of identity both individual and communal The idea of Creating Through Mind and Emotions has been a powerful motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts

Pragmatism and Modern Architecture William G. Ramroth, 2006-03-29 Architecture is not origami A drawing cannot be folded in a clever way to make a real building A picture of a building is no more architecture than a drawing of a sculpture is the sculpture To exist the building must be built A building is the outcome of an idea Pragmatism is the philosophy that connects an idea with its result It measures the success of the idea by its function its appearance and its contribution to the environment in which it exists This work examines the relationship between the methods of modern architecture and the philosophy of pragmatism It discusses how modern architecture and pragmatism developed during the nineteenth century and offers examples of pragmatism within the work and writings of predominant practitioners and theorists of modern architecture

New Media Anna Everett, John T. Caldwell, 2003-02-28 The mushroom like growth of new media technologies is radically challenging traditional media outlets The proliferation of technologies like DVDs MP3s and the Internet has freed the public from what we used to understand as mass media In the face of such seismic shifts and ruptures the theoretical and pedagogical foundations of film and TV studies are being shaken to their core New Media demands a necessary rethinking of the field Writing from a range of disciplines and perspectives the scholars here outline new theses and conceptual frameworks capable of engaging the numerous facets of emergent digital technology

Compositional Intelligence

Daniel Koehler, 2025-09-12 With a foreword by Mario Carpo Given the extensive data sources represented by urban environments this book investigates the potential of architecting for cities using large scale models the technological underpinning of Generative AI Koehler examines Large Language Models LLMs in relation to architectural questions of typology those critical junctures where architecture engages with the city itself Typology becomes the interface between an AI model and its modeled audiences represented languages and scales of operation The investigation reveals how LLMs represent a fundamental shift from comprehending discrete elements to understanding entire languages introducing a stochastic perspective that transforms how we read and shape urban reality At the heart of this framework lies the concept of inductive types threshold interfaces that superpose multiple value regimes and actively reconfigure themselves in response to changing urban conditions By treating architecture as a form of representational materialism rather than a fixed language designers can engage with complex urban systems while maintaining critical agency This approach envisions architecture as an embedding of languages where buildings become processors of information that compute through their spatial arrangements The synthetic knowledge produced by LLMs enables access to plural values and stakeholder perspectives allowing architects to participate in broader material ecologies through computational superposition rather than traditional dialectical methods Providing a robust theoretical framework as well as practical insights into how architects can adapt their notational tools and design processes to embrace AI this will be an essential read for any practicing or researching architect or urban designer interested in the implications of AI on the built environment Sir John Vanbrugh Vaughan Hart,2008 In explaining why Vanbrugh s buildings look the way they do Hart allows his novel architectural forms to be understood for the first time as expressions of the visual and psychological theories of his friend and fellow Whig Joseph Addison BOOK JACKET
