

Strategic Management Case Study with Solution

Introduction

The field of business analysis under business management is often used in identifying business risks, business models and the determination of their solutions. There are a lot of tools for analysis that are currently available in helping a business as well as its strategy. These tools are extremely helpful towards the identification of problems that the business is facing. Often, the solutions that are offered come in the form of a system development which works towards developing the system components.

Key Drivers for Change

From the analysis, it has been found out that economically, politically, technologically, legally and environmentally, a company enjoys a strong position simply because of a strong market position, considerations on legal aspects, as well as research of top quality products in terms of production and distribution.

Suggested Solutions

The model presented by Michael Watsons in his book "Advantage of Competitive Nations" describes that the method in which big industries turn to becoming competitive depends on the current conditions. The model also describes that there are competitive benefits that specific nations and countries are enjoying. However, when focusing on a business firm level, it has been found that various conditions, such as demand, as well as related and supporting concerns, also play a vital role in the overall outcome of the company's growth. The theory produced identified forces in which an industry can have the capability to attract a certain market. An attractive industry is described as one that has already presented the forces and can still attain profitability. The forces include threat of the existence of new products, threats of alternative products, intensive competition among current players, bargaining capacities of suppliers as well as the purchasing power of buyers. By analyzing into the capabilities of a company in each aspect, a strategic approach can be attained.

Strategic Management Case Study With Solution:

Case Studies in Strategic Management Gunther Friedl, Andreas Biagosch, 2018-09-08 Most business schools use case studies in their courses However these are typically based on past cases and assigned to students to solve This book describes a new approach for teaching with case studies which was developed and applied successfully at TUM School of Management In this approach student teams write and solve their own case study on a topic concerning current and future businesses A case can thus be on their own startup or a strategic decision of existing companies During the course the students receive intensive coaching while selecting and developing the case topic by the course advisors as well as feedback by industry experts and executives for whom the case is actually a burning question The authors present 17 cases covering strategic questions for startups and technology companies such as Deutsche Post BMW Ryanair Lufthansa Stadtwerke München Fielmann adidas Siemens Caribou Biosciences eon Airbus Unicredit and UBS

The Paradoxical Foundation of Strategic Management Andreas Rasche, 2007-10-25 This book offers a systematic critique of the scientific discourse of strategic management It uncovers scholars unquestioned assumptions and shows that by upholding these assumptions researchers obscure the paradoxical nature of strategic reasoning To uncover the paradoxes of strategic management the author refers to the philosophy of Jacques Derrida He exposes the paradoxes that inevitably occur when theorizing about corporate strategy along the dimensions strategy context process and content and shows how these paradoxes can enrich future thinking about strategic problems The analysis is completed by a discussion of theoretical and practical implications which highlight the need to research strategy not as something an organization has but as something an organization does Such a practice perspective gives reference to the paradoxical ground that strategic management rests on and enriches scholars ability to reflect on practitioners tasks while doing strategy in organizations
