God Is Not a Republican Daniel Korie,2024-04-09 This book explores the intersections of partisan politics and Christianity in contemporary society It examines how biblical values such as equitable justice honesty love of other people and help to the poor have been compromised for partisan politics which presents an unprecedented danger to the integrity of the Christian faith The book presents compelling biblical teachings that contradict the misinformation promoted by some evangelical preachers to give the impression that the Republican Party s political agendas represent God s values To demystify such misconceptions and present clarifications concerning significant political and social issues the book draws parallel comparisons of the practices and policies of the Republican Party and Democratic Party and contrasts them with biblical teachings

State, Society and Corruption in Africa Yusuf Ali,Abiodun Alao,2025-12-25 An illuminating and comprehensive interrogation of the impacts of corruption on state structures and institutions in Africa from two expert African scholars Focusing on a variety of institutions and establishments from the judiciary to the legislature civil service to religion tertiary education to national economies and drawing on key countries across the continent including Nigeria Ghana Sierra Leone Kenya Ethiopia South Africa and Zimbabwe the book explains why national continental and global initiatives addressing corruption have achieved such limited success This provides a much needed nuanced understanding of corruption which rejects stereotypical depictions of Africa as a corruption ridden continent and also offers new insights into the international community s role in making and sustaining corrupt systems in Africa

Religion, Public Health and Human Security in Nigeria Abiodun Alao,2022-12-28 This book critically examines the intersection of religion public health and human security in Nigeria Focusing on Christianity Islam traditional religions and intra religious doctrinal divergencies the book explores the impact faith has on health related decisions and how this affects security in Nigeria The book assesses the connection between religion and five contemporary major health and medical issues in the country This includes the issue of epidemics and pandemics such as the Covid 19 pandemic vaccines contraception blood transfusion and the controversies associated with miracle healing In particular this book explores situations where individuals have the power of choice but instead embraces faith and religious positions that contradict science in the management of their health and in the process expose themselves and others to personal health insecurity It investigates aspects of human security including the wider international ramifications of health issues approaches to cures and the interpretation of causes of diseases as well as the ethno religious connotations of such interpretations Exploring key issues that have brought religion into the politics of health and human security in Nigeria this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of African Religion

Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B. Chewachong,2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within

Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria's Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel's transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within
