Consumer Knowledge and Financial Decisions Douglas J. Lamdin, 2011-11-23 There has been an increasing recognition that financial knowledge i e literacy is lacking across the population Moreover there is recognition that this lack of knowledge poses real problems as credit mortgages health insurance retirement benefits and savings and investment decisions become increasingly complex Financial Decisions Across the Lifespan brings together the work of scholars from various disciplines family and consumer sciences economics law finance sociology and public policy to provide a broad range of perspectives on financial knowledge financial decisions and policies For consistency across the volume each chapter follows a similar format 1 what individuals know or need to know 2 how what they know or need to know affects financial decisions and outcomes 3 ways in which policies or programs or financial innovations can enhance their knowledge or decisions or outcomes Contributors will provide both new and existing research to create a valuable picture of the state of financial literacy and how it can be improved

The Multimedia Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, Jane E. Sloan, 2013-01-09 This e only volume expands and updates the original 4 volume Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World 2011 offering a wide range of new entries and new multimedia content The entries reflect such developments as the Arab Spring that brought women's issues in the Islamic world into sharp relief the domination of female athletes among medal winners at the London 2012 Olympics nine more women joining the ranks of democratically elected heads of state and much more The 475 articles in this e only update accompanied by photos and video clips supplement the themes established in the original edition providing a vibrant collection of entries dealing with contemporary women's issues around the world
