Religion Textbook:

Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima, 2012-07-10 In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions. Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions. This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia. These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions. Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world. Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans, Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students. Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions. This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies.

Ideology and Hegemony of English Foreign Language Textbooks Ömer Gökhan Ulum, Dinçay Köksal, 2020-01-27 This volume investigates ideological and hegemonic practices in globally and locally written English as a Foreign Language EFL textbooks and explores whether these textbooks reflect the values beliefs and norms of the native speaker society by examining their ideological components and the hegemonic practices by means of which the source society or state seeks to influence learners of the language It also attempts to clarify EFL teachers and students views on the underlying ideology and hegemonic practices in globally and locally written EFL textbooks

Studies on the relationship between ideology hegemony and textbooks in applied linguistics have become more prevalent in recent decades as the emergence of critical theory critical pedagogy and critical thinking skills from the 1920s onwards has led scholars to adopt a more critical perspective towards EFL textbooks especially with regard to elements of ideology and hegemony These two terms encompass a plethora of components ranging from nationalism to religion At the same time the importance of metanarratives originating from the tenets of modernism has declined from the 1960s onwards the assumption being that the world has entered a new age called postmodernism and post structuralism that emphasizes the role of individuals and rejects efforts to reinforce post colonialism the effects of which can be seen in EFL textbooks Accordingly taking the elements of ideology and hegemony into account remains a vital aspect in the analysis of EFL textbooks
