Teaching Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners María V. Balderrama, Lynne T. Díaz-Rico, 2006 Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners addresses the needs of elementary and secondary teachers in multilingual classrooms including second language learning across multiple academic subjects Renowned authors María V Balderrama and Lynne Díaz Rico provide in a single volume the techniques necessary to prepare teachers and other professionals to teach speakers of other languages and cultural backgrounds This timely text is designed to be a comprehensive source of teaching techniques and effective educational practices particularly those that meet California's standardized Teacher Performance Assessment that prospective teachers must take This book specifically addresses those standards by presenting explicit expectations that challenge teachers in multilingual multiethnic classrooms Subscribing to a teaching approach that respects and builds second language skills upon a foundation of native language proficiency Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners contains the most up to date techniques currently available for promoting linguistic proficiency and features multiple effective teaching methods for the educator of English learners The main tenet of the book is that successful English language learning results from a combination of rich interesting content instruction and a fast moving engaging curriculum

Issues in Language Programme Evaluation in the 1990s Sarinee Anivan, 1991

Voices of Authority Monica Heller, Marilyn Martin-Jones, 2001-02-28 One of the major challenges of our day is the provision of effective democratic education under conditions of increasing sociolinguistic diversity and change Yet most work on this subject focuses on linguistic cognitive pedagogical or policy dimensions of education and linguistic diversity failing to address social and political issues This volume argues that these are central to understanding the significance and consequence both of educational policy and practices in multilingual settings and language policy and practices as they manifest themselves through education Specifically we argue that language practices in these settings reveal struggles over the establishment of authority and legitimacy they can be interpreted as voices expressing a variety of social positions and interests to the resources distributed through educational institutions and processes They reveal what is at stake and for whom in choices made at state institutional school and other levels regarding both language of instruction and assessment as well as regarding language teaching and learning and the evaluation of linguistic proficiency The Massachusetts register ,1992-07-31 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2002 Encyclopedia of Language & Linguistics E. K. Brown,2006
