The United States census is politically important because:

- A. Immigrants without proper documentation are tracked and deported by the Census Bureau, which explains immigrants' historically low rates of participation in censuses.
- B. Statistical sampling reveals that homeless people are over counted, particularly in large cities.
- C. Some legislative seats, including those of the U.S. Houses of Representatives, are apportioned according to population.
- D. Every vote counts equally in a presidential election.
- E. The U.S. democratic process is never influenced by corporations and corporate money. - -C. Some legislative seats, including those of the U.S. Houses of Representatives, are apportioned according to population.

-Analyzing a world map and the population maps in this chapter, you can deduce that the most populous country south of the Philippines is:

- A. Australia
- B. Indonesia
- C. New Zealand
- D. China
- E. Malaysia - -B. Indonesia

-Geographers might characterize as overpopulated a country where:

- A. There are too many people according to a standard economic measure of poverty.
- B. The population numbers less than one million, but there is concern that the country's natural resources are adequate for only half that number.
- C. The population numbers more than 100 million and there is concern about the finite limits of natural resources, although the resources available in the country seem adequate to that population.
- D. The population numbers more than 1 million, and there is an average distribution of population to resources.
- E. All of these answer choices are correct. - -B. The population numbers less than one million, but there is concern that the country's natural resources are adequate for only half that number.

-A homeless person living in a small town would be _____ to be counted in the US Census than a homeless person living in a large city:
