Akbar Zaidi Economic Issues Chapter 15:

Issues in Pakistan's Economy S. Akbar Zaidi, 2005 This book is the main text for post graduate courses on South Asia s development economic history and on its political economy For researchers on Pakistan s economy it is the key source for reference and covers a huge and diverse array of data literature reviews commentary and analysis The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country s corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker Economic and Political Weekly , 2005 The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government s treatment of non dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) Lawrence Saez, 2012-05-23 The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC is an international organization comprised of the eight countries in South Asia This work aims examine the institutional structure objectives and effectiveness of the SAARC in its role as South Asia s leading regional institution Drawing on original research it offers a fresh and accessible account of SAARC arguing that South Asia forms a unique regional security complex that enables certain forms of regional cooperation and bars cooperation on other issue areas The text provides a comprehensive introduction to the SAARC describing the historical developments that lead to its formation and examining key issues such as The inner workings of Regional Centres and their success in implementing the decisions reached at SAARC summits How SAARC has sought to address critical new security challenges such as health pandemics terrorism energy security South Asia s economic cooperation and the South Asia Free Trade Agreement SAFTA Challenges that expansion pose to the organization particularly China s suggestion to expand beyond the traditional borders of South Asia The work aims to evaluate what scope there is for formal institutions like SAARC to provide a permanent regional security architecture within which South Asian countries can effectively address important issues and will be of great interest to all students and scholars of Asian security studies and institutions in general and students and scholars of international relations in South Asia in particular

Perspectives on Contemporary Pakistan Ghulam Ali, Ejaz Hussain, 2020-06-09 This book analyses problems of governance development and environment affecting contemporary Pakistan issues that lie at the centre of federal and provincial policy deliberations formulation and implementation The book offers a comprehensive assessment of the policies or lack thereof Authors from a variety of disciplines empirically and conceptually evaluate latest developments events and data regarding law and order economic under performance social intolerance and climate crisis The book offers varied perspectives on state sovereignty civil military relations spousal violence rural development CPEC nuclear governance and transboundary climate risk Arguing that the conclusions should be adopted by the social political and economic stakeholders of Pakistan as well as the region at the higher level of governability the book demonstrates that it would both boost national morale and inspire individuals to further investigate to come up with innovative solutions Examining some of the most pressing and persistent problems Pakistan and South Asia is facing the book will be of interest to academics working in the fields of Political Science in particular South Asian Politics Development Studies and Environmental Studies South Asia

Conundrum B. M. Jain, 2019-04-30 South Asia Conundrum offers fresh ideas and enlightening narratives about how geopolitical and geostrategic entanglements of extra regional powers notably the United States Russia and China in South Asia and its extended neighborhood have transformed the Af Pak region into a theater of unending conflict and political instability The book addresses and illuminates the impending challenges and evaluates policy options before the Trump administration and US allies in dealing with the Afghan imbroglio The book argues how the emerging strategic alliance among Russia Iran China and Pakistan has not only constrained US options in the region but has also constricted the US role and influence in South Asia Afghanistan and Central Asia South Asian Conundrum further illustrates how the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC a part of Beijing s mega Belt and Road Initiative BRI constitutes a direct challenge to economic and security interests of India and the United States in the region The scope of the book is not exclusively limited to South Asia Its geostrategic and geo economic ramifications are much larger and deeper in global and regional contexts involving the Greater Middle East Asia the triangular Russian Chinese and Iranian strategic partnership and the long term fallout of CPEC and China's BRI on global political and economic architecture      Transforming Urban Settlements S. Akbar Zaidi, 2000 With reference to Pakistan      The New Development Paradigm S. Akbar Zaidi, 2000 The role of government institutions and society has been radically transformed in the last two decades This book examines how the New Development Paradigm is put into practice in Pakistan and other underdeveloped countries It focuses upon the role NGOs institutions and local governments play in development related activity and examines the attempts to alter the gender balance considered to be one of the main reasons for lack of development Essentially the book offers a critique of the new theories which constitute the New Development Paradigm and addresses a wide audience ranging from the scholar and activist to journalists and general readers      India at Century's End Subhash Kak, 1994 Chiefly on the current developments in Indian politics      Journal of the Pakistan Historical Society Pakistan Historical Society, 2005      Mingora Zeenat Hisam, Alain M. Viaro, 2002 Extrait de la couverture Intermediary or medium sized cities can play an important role in the development of balanced national urban systems Due to its small size and face to face social interaction an intermediary city can be the ideal site for good governance and sustainable development providing services to the surrounding region and thus mitigating the push factor that leads to the emergence of ungovernable and bursting at the seams megacities This was the assumption that led to an international action research project initiated by the Swiss National Science Foundation SNSFIFNRS under its National Research Programme on Environment in three cities of the Southern countries Mingora an intermediary city in Swat valley North West Frontier Province Pakistan was one of the cities selected for the study This book documents the second phase of the action research 1996 2000 that facilitated the process of growing awareness of and people's participation in solving the urban and environmental management issues through a local agent of change a group of dedicated young professional men the Environmental Protection Society EPS The process facilitated the identification and analysis of the pressing civic issues sanitation and waste management transport governance explored power dynamics of various stakeholders government agencies the municipality the elite the communities and the citizen sector organisations created linkages between the academia communities and resource organisations and provided a platform for consultation among various stakeholders This book brings out the successes and failures of the action research discusses the conflicts between different key participants in the process and sheds light on the development issues that need to be addressed      The Concept ,2005      Economic and Political Weekly, 1966-2006 ,2006      The Book Review ,2000      A History of Pakistan and Its Origins Christophe Jaffrelot, 2002 A History of Pakistan and its Origins is a comprehensive detailed and fully up to date study of one of the most diverse volatile and strategically significant countries in the world today Born in turmoil barely half a century ago Pakistan seems to be in an interminable pursuit of its own identity and at the same time finds itself a pivotal player in world politics Its short existence has witnessed much four coups d'etat the rise of Islam as a power tensions between ethnic religious and separatist movements the Kashmir conflict and the near constant war footing with India This text charts half a century of nation building in Pakistan while at the same time placing the country within the context of its relations with the outside world     Book Review Index Dana Ferguson,2001     Politics of Modern South Asia Subrata Kumar Mitra,2009 Provides a cross referenced and easily accessible collection of the best scholarly articles in the field South Asian politics While each of the four volumes is designed to be self contained and cohesive the volumes are linked through the general introduction cross referencing index and a bibliography of further annotated readings     International Literary Market Place.
