Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson, 1832-1910 William Morton Payne,2020-09-28 Eight years ago taking a bird s eye view of the mountain peaks of contemporary literature and writing with particular reference to Bj rnsn s seventieth birthday it seemed proper to make the following remarks about the most famous European authors then numbered among living men If one were asked for the name of the greatest man of letters still living in the world the possible claimants to the distinction would hardly be more than five in number If it were a question of poetry alone Swinburne would have to be named first with Carducci for a fairly close second But if we take literature in its larger sense as including all the manifestations of creative activity in language and if we insist furthermore that the man singled out for this pre minence shall stand in some vital relation to the intellectual life of his time and exert a forceful influence upon
