Creativity from Suburban Nowheres Ilja Van Damme,Ruth McManus,Michiel Dehaene,2023-07-26 Looking at suburbs as places of creativity gives rise to novel and thought provoking narratives that typically run counter to the idea that suburbs are sites of ordinary mundane and everyday practices Far from being geographies of nowhere dull materialistic and monotone suburbs are unpacked as being heterogeneous and historically layered places of living work and creation Situating creativity in place and time Creativity from Suburban Nowheres displaces mainstream understandings of creativity and widespread stereotypes commonly associated with the suburbs Contributors explore the particular forms of creativity that suburbs elicit both in the process of their making materialization and community construction and in the myriad ways in which suburbs are inhabited and experienced They highlight accounts of suburbs as places that give people the space and latitude to shape individual and collective identities through creative practices at odds with mainstream culture and often remote from the classic agglomeration assets associated with inner cities Anchored in historical and geographical research this volume highlights how and in what forms creativity should be understood in the suburbs why and when creativity can be found and how the notion of suburban creativity overthrows ingrained and dominant normative viewpoints Rather than seeing creativity arise despite its suburban location Creativity from Suburban Nowheres illuminates the emancipatory potential of suburbs for creativity

The Consumer Society Reader Juliet Schor,Douglas B. Holt,2011-07-26 The Consumer Society Reader features a range of key works on the nature and evolution of consumer society Included here is much discussed work by leading critics such as Jean Baudrillard Susan Bordo Dick Hebdige bell hooks and Janice Radway Also included is a full range of classics such as Frankfurt School writers Adorno and Horkheimer on the Culture Industry Thorstein Veblen's oft cited writings on conspicuous consumption Betty Friedan on the housewife's central role in consumer society John Kenneth Galbraith's influential analysis of the affluent society and Pierre Bourdieu on the notion of taste Consumer society the air we breathe as George Orwell has described it disappears during economic downturns and political crises It becomes visible again when prosperity seems secure cultural transformation is too rapid or environmental disasters occur Such is the time in which we now find ourselves As the roads clog with gas guzzling SUVs and McMansions proliferate in the suburbs the nation is once again asking fundamental questions about lifestyle Has luxury fever to use Robert Frank's phrase gotten out of hand Are we really comfortable with the Brand Is Me mentality Have we gone too far in pursuit of the almighty dollar to the detriment of our families communities and natural environment Even politicians ordinarily impermeable to questions about consumerism are voicing doubts and polls suggest majorities of Americans feel the country has become too materialistic too focused on getting and spending and increasingly removed from long standing non materialist values From the introduction by Douglas B Holt and Juliet B Schor
