Faces Mohamed Choukri, 2024-10-01 The first English translation of one of the novels that helped change modern Arab literature Mohamed Choukri one of the most important writers of modern Moroccan literature grew up in extreme poverty in Tangier and was illiterate until the age of twenty After learning to read he realized that writing could also be a way to expose to protest against those who have stolen my childhood my teenage hood and a piece of my youthfulness His vivid portrayals of marginalized people which had been considered taboo led to the censorship of his work and a cultural backlash in the Middle East In Faces the third book in his trilogy of fictionalized autobiographical works he describes gritty events extreme poverty prostitution violence sexual revelry deprivation and abuse It is through his storytelling that Choukri reflects on human nature love and kindness emphasizing the need for community and collaboration Faces humanizes those undergoing poverty and places the blame for the violence they encounter squarely on colonial forces and the resulting postcolonial government while opening literary traditions to a new style of writing Choukri's friendships with Tennessee Williams Paul Bowles Jean Genet and other writers brought him attention in his lifetime But Faces his last novel which was originally published in Arabic in 2000 has remained untranslated until now In English for the first time Jonas Elbousty's translation allows Choukri's work to reach wider international discussions of contemporary Arab literature

Mohamed Choukri's Al Khubz Al Hafi was published. This first part of Choukri's extraordinary autobiography is written in a very simplistic style which Paul Bowles the translator of For Bread Alone also described as a technique. Choukri's narration is the work of an illiterate who has not yet learned to classify what goes into his memory.<sup>5</sup> The novel illustrates the protagonist's struggle to survive under exceptionally difficult circumstances namely extreme poverty and violence. Indeed Mohamed Choukri states that all my life has been a response to one challenge after the other. The novel is constructed as a rihla journey both an earlier external one of physical movement and a later one which this paper will describe as internal. First this paper will explore the external journey which leads the protagonist Mohamed to different cities and places and it will analyze the language structure and content which express this travel. This first journey is dominated by his family whose relationship with Mohamed is also central to this study. Furthermore it will examine the transition from this journey to the internal one by means of the content and the structure of the text. The internal rihla which prevails in the second part of the novel and which the paper will address by means of the text's language and content obviously is not separate from the external journey since the story is about the development of one and the same person. The second journey that describes his existence as a teenager replaces the first physical one lived as a child. However this paper will divide the two rihlas in order to carve out its differences and to show Mohamed's development which eventually leads to his emancipation through lit
