Communication skills

- Communication skills allow you to understand and be understood by others.
- It is also helpful to understand the differences in how to communicate through face-to-face interactions, phone conversations and digital communications like email and social media.
- These can include but are not limited to effectively communicating ideas to others, actively listening in conversations, giving and receiving critical feedback and public speaking.
- Communication skills are the abilities you use when giving and receiving different kinds of information.
- Some examples include communicating new ideas, feelings or even an update on your project. Communication skills involve listening, speaking, observing and empathizing.
