Informed by recent scholarship and interest in cultural studies and critical theory, it is a compact core text that introduces students to the historical contexts, genres, and issues of children's literature. A beautifully designed and illustrated supplement to individual literary works assigned, it also provides apparatus that makes it a complete resource for working with children's literature during and after the course. The second edition includes a new chapter on children's literature and popular culture, including film, television, and merchandising, and has been updated throughout to reflect recent scholarship and new offerings in children's media.

Chivalric Stories as Children's Literature Velma Bourgeois Richmond, 2014-10-01 Knights and ladies, giants and dragons, tournaments, battles, quests, and crusades are commonplace in stories for children. This book examines how late Victorians and Edwardians retold medieval narratives of chivalry, epics, romances, sagas, legends, and ballads. Stories of Beowulf, Arthur, Gawain, St. George, Roland, Robin Hood, and many more thrilled and instructed children and encouraged adult reading. Lavish volumes and schoolbooks of the era featured illustrated texts, many by major artists. Children's books, an essential part of Edwardian publishing, were disseminated throughout the English-speaking world. Many are being reprinted today. This book examines related contexts of Medievalism expressed in painting, architecture, music, and public celebrations, and the works of major authors including Sir Walter Scott, Tennyson, Longfellow, and William Morris. The book explores national identity expressed through literature, ideals of honor and valor in the years before World War I, and how childhood reading influenced 20th-century writers as diverse as C. S. Lewis, J. R. R. Tolkien, Siegfried Sassoon, David Jones, Graham Greene, Ian Fleming, and John Le Carré.
