conceptually quite unlike our own It was a world he writes in which the heavens above were occupied by celestial spiritual potentates of questionable character in which angels ruled the nations of the earth as local gods in which demons prowled the empty places and in which the entire cosmos was for many an eternal divine order and for many others a darkened prison house He challenges readers to imagine it anew a God who reigned on high appearing in the form of a slave and dying as a criminal only then to be raised up and revealed as the Lord of all things
