

A Chorus Line Monologues

Don Kerr Don maintains other jobs and a family along with his love of Broadway. No particular dancing requirements must be of suitable age for parenthood.

Mike Costa Italian, and a good tapper. Spent his childhood watching his sister going to dance class, eventually joined in. No age range, but must be a good singer and tapper (soft-shoe).

Gregory Gardner Jewish, gay, and very laid back. Also one of the older auditionees. Various parts during different songs, but no particular singing or dancing requirements.

Bobby Mills III An amusing extrovert, goes over the top with stories of his childhood. The core of And whilst the other cast recall childhood memories too. No particular age or dance requirements.

Mark Anthony Mark is 20, and has never done a show before. Quite earnest, and a little naïve. Really really wants to get into the show. Good dancer, and sings solo quite high.

Paul San Marco When auditionees start opening up about their lives, Paul starts to panic; what will he tell Zach about his life and his sexuality? Manages to get out of it, but comes back onstage to perform a long (approx 8-10 minutes) monologue to Zach about his life. Good dancer, needs to be a fantastic actor.

Zach The choreographer. He's been directing/choreographing shows on Broadway for some time. Previously had a relationship with Cassie, before she left to pursue a career in LA. Doesn't necessarily have to dance well, should be a strong actor. Stage age older than everyone else, preferably 34-40. Must have a lot of chemistry with Cassie.

Maggie Winslow A strong singer, Maggie is a bit meek but loves the theatre. No particular age requirements.

Connie Wong 4'10" Asian girl, preferably 25-28. Coy about her age, and quite funny. Good dancer, but doesn't need to tap exceptionally well.

Cassie Ferguson Of similar age to Zach, Cassie has spent years performing in chorus lines on Broadway, and then during a relationship with Zach, left to pursue a film & television career in LA. Has returned to Broadway to try to get a job in the chorus. Loves to dance, best dancer in the show. Needs to be older than the other cast members, and have that tired/worldly look about her. Strong singer and very strong dancer. Must have a lot of chemistry with Zach.

The Routledge Companion to the Contemporary Musical Jessica Sternfeld, Elizabeth L. Wollman, 2019-08-16 The Routledge Companion to the Contemporary Musical is dedicated to the musical's evolving relationship to American culture in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries In the past decade and a half international scholars from an ever widening number of disciplines and specializations have been actively contributing to the interdisciplinary field of musical theater studies Musicals have served not only to mirror the sociopolitical economic and cultural tenor of the times but have helped shape and influence it in America and across the globe a genre that may seem at first glance light hearted and escapist serves also as a bold commentary on society Forty four essays examine the contemporary musical as an ever shifting product of an ever changing culture This volume sheds new light on the American musical as a thriving contemporary performing arts genre one that could have died out in the post Tin Pan Alley era but instead has managed to remain culturally viable and influential in part by newly embracing a series of complex contradictions At present the American musical is a live localized old fashioned genre that has simultaneously developed into an increasingly globalized tech savvy intensely mediated mass entertainment form Similarly as it has become increasingly international in its scope and appeal the stage musical has also become more firmly rooted to Broadway the idea if not the place and thus branded as a quintessentially American entertainment

Classical Monologues Leon Katz, 2002. Sure to become a mainstay of any actor's shelf, Applause is pleased to present the first two volumes of Leon Katz's monumental monologue collection. Covering the full scope of Western Drama from the Greeks to the 20th Century, these two volumes contain over 250 monologues from sources other than Shakespeare's plays. The works range from the famous to the little-known, covering over 2,000 years of theatrical history. Katz provides an introduction to each monologue that provides an informative and critical context for actors, directors, students, and teachers, but are also of relevance to general readers. Each volume is organized into Tragedy, Drama, and Comedy divisions, and the monologues are helpfully arranged by period as well as chronologically. Also, the monologues are fully footnoted for unfamiliar references and definitions, and the bibliography provides exhaustive listings of sources for all the plays from which the monologues have been drawn. Simply put, these two volumes are a must for actors, directors, teachers, and students of classical theatre.
