and 82% of all written French text

How Much Vocabulary Do You Need To Know

While it's important to note it's impossible to pin down these numbers and statistics with 100% accuracy these are a global average of multiple sources According to scientific research this is the amount of vocabulary needed for varying levels of fluency

- 250 words the essential core of a language Without these words you cannot construct sentences
- 750 words those that are used every single day by every person who speaks the language
- 2500 words those that should enable you to express everything you could possibly want to say although some creativity might be required
- 5000 words the active vocabulary of native speakers without higher education You will understand 95% of all written texts
- 10 000 words the active vocabulary of native speakers with higher education
- 20 000 words the amount you need to recognize passively in order to read understand and enjoy a work of literature such as a novel by a notable author

Keeping above facts in mind the value of a frequency dictionary is immense

What is Inside This Book

A frequency list of the most frequently used French words based on analysis of 20 gigabytes of French subtitles the equivalent of 80 000 books of 200 pages each more than two large libraries worth of text A large base text collection is absolutely vital in order to establish a reliable general frequency list Subtitles have the advantage of corresponding both to written and spoken language This makes subtitles the best method for creating a useful and practical word frequency list

This French to English frequency dictionary can roughly be divided in three parts

- 2 500 French words in ranked by general frequency
- Frequency ranking by part of speech E G The most used adjectives nouns verbs etc
- 2 500 French words in alphabetical order

French pronunciation can be tricky To help pronounce French words correctly we added phonetic transcriptions of French words The phonetic spelling of words is done by the use of the International Phonetic Alphabet
