The Copyeditor's Handbook Amy Einsohn, Marilyn Schwartz, 2019-05-14 The new updated edition of the handbook that should be on every copyeditor's desk

Unstuffy hip and often funny The Copyeditor's Handbook has become an indispensable resource both for new editors and for experienced hands who want to refresh their skills and broaden their understanding of the craft of copyediting. This fourth edition incorporates the latest advice from language authorities, usage guides, and new editions of major style manuals, including The Chicago Manual of Style. It registers the tectonic shifts in twenty-first-century copyediting: preparing text for digital formats, using new technologies, addressing global audiences, complying with plain language mandates, ensuring accessibility, and serving self-publishing authors and authors writing in English as a second language. The new edition also adds an extensive annotated list of editorial tools and references and includes a bit of light entertainment for language lovers, such as a brief history of punctuation marks that didn't make the grade, the strange case of razbliuto, and a few Easter eggs awaiting discovery by keen-eyed readers. The fourth edition features updates on the transformation of editorial roles in today's publishing environment, new applications, processes, and protocols for on-screen editing, major changes in editorial resources such as online dictionaries and language corpora, new grammar and usage authorities, online editorial communities, and web-based research tools. When you're ready to test your mettle, pick up The Copyeditor's Workbook: Exercises and Tips for Honing Your Editorial Judgment, the essential new companion to the handbook. A Writer's Reference with Writing about Literature, Diana Hacker, Nancy Sommers, 2011. This version of the best-selling college handbook includes a tabbed section called Writing about Literature, a practical guide to interpreting works of literature and to planning, composing, and documenting papers about literature. Students will find help with forming and supporting an interpretation, avoiding plot summary, integrating quotations from a literary work, observing the conventions of literature papers, and using secondary sources. Writing about Literature also includes two sample student essays: one that uses primary sources and one that uses primary and secondary sources. The full primary texts are also included. Writing about Literature is also available in a packageable stand-alone booklet, ISBN 978-0-312-65684-3. Contact your sales representative or sales_support@bfpublish.com for a copy. A Writer's Reference with Exercises, Diana Hacker, Nancy Sommers, 2020-09-09. A Writer's Reference has offered clear and quick answers to tough questions for millions of college writers. With a groundbreaking tabbed lay-flat format and a first-of-its-kind directness, it helped a generation of students engage in their own writing and meet the challenges of the composition course. As we celebrate the 10th edition, we invite you to see our latest innovation, our latest answer to the question we have been asking for 35 years: How can we help? We help with superior content developed by experienced authors and shaped by faculty and student advisers. And we help with Achieve, a first-of-its-kind suite of digital tools paired with content you trust. Achieve with A Writer's Reference lets you engage students in new ways. They do the work of the composition course in a contained and active writing space: they read, write, reflect, respond to peers, consult the handbook, and make action plans. And instructors use Achieve to design and facilitate writing assignments, peer review, and reflection. The best part: Achieve gives you deeper visibility into students' writing processes, lets you see between the drafts. Insights for each writer and for each class provide actionable information about how your students are responding to expectations allowing you to see foster and measure progress The 10th edition is an innovation celebration a continued commitment to college writers and teachers of writing
