Death beyond Disavowal Grace Kyungwon Hong, 2015-10-01 Death beyond Disavowal utilizes difference as theorized by women of color feminists to analyze works of cultural production by people of color as expressing a powerful antidote to the erasures of contemporary neoliberalism According to Grace Kyungwon Hong neoliberalism is first and foremost a structure of disavowal enacted as a reaction to the successes of the movements for decolonization desegregation and liberation of the post World War II era It emphasizes the selective and uneven affirmation and incorporation of subjects and ideas that were formerly categorically marginalized particularly through invitation into reproductive respectability It does so in order to suggest that racial gendered and sexualized violence and inequity are conditions of the past rather than the foundations of contemporary neoliberalism s exacerbation of premature death Neoliberal ideologies hold out the promise of protection from premature death in exchange for complicity with this pretense In Audre Lorde s Sister Outsider Cherr e Moraga s The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Oscar Zeta Acosta s The Revolt of the Cockroach People Ana Castillo s So Far from God Gayl Jones s Corregidora Isaac Julien s Looking for Langston Inge Blackman s B D Women Rodney Evans s Brother to Brother and the work of the late Barbara Christian Death beyond Disavowal finds the memories of death and precarity that neoliberal ideologies attempt to erase Hong posits cultural production as a compelling rejoinder to neoliberalism s violences She situates women of color feminism often dismissed as narrow or limited in its effect as a potent diagnosis of and alternative to such violences And she argues for the importance of women of color feminism to any critical engagement with contemporary neoliberalism

David Fontana, 2016-07-19 A psychologist seeks to answer your burning questions about what happens after death from afterlife communication and human consciousness to out of body and near death experiences Most people in the world believe in some form of life after death but what exactly is the nature of the afterlife David Fontana examines all the extensive evidential material that has been accumulated over time including communication through mediums and accounts from those who had near death and out of body experiences and compares them to descriptions found in such mystical texts as The Tibetan Book of the Dead and The Egyptian Book of the Dead He explores the whole area of human consciousness and considers the question if the body and the brain perish at death what remains to survive From the various ideas of paradise to the very meaning of existence this is a journey through infinite possibilities Death Stalin M Falcon, 2024-11-15 This time we will explore death not as an absolute end but as a mystery that defies reason and encourages reflection We delve into different aspects of this enigma from its biological process to the possibility of a life after death from near death experiences and reincarnation to regressive hypnosis and its revelations about past lives Each chapter invites us to examine a fragment of this complex reality offering different perspectives and reflections to help us understand even in part the enigma that is death Join me on this journey into the unknown where we do not seek absolute answers but rather the possibility of accepting death as an inevitable part of our human experience Perhaps in the end the greatest mystery of death is the one that invites us to live more intensely to value each moment and to find meaning in the brief period we call life
