Elementary Theory of Qualitative Analysis Frederick William Miller, 1929 National Bar Examination Digest, 1976 Journal of applied psychology, 1928 Analytical Templates of the Bavli Jacob Neusner, 2006-03-01 In the Mishnah ca 200 C E the Tosefta ca 300 C E and the commentaries that joined them the Yerushalmi the Talmud of the Land of Israel ca 400 and the Bavli and the Talmud of Babylonia ca 600 the law of Judaism is outlined topic by topic. The exposition of these topics however is shaped in part by a generic analytical program. The hermeneutics of the Halakhah of the formative canon guides the Rabbinic sages to say the same thing about many things. Specifically issues of a patterned analytical character guide the presentation so that most topics in some measure and some topics in paramount measure serve to illustrate ubiquitous generic problems of thought or intellectual templates. Two generative problems found in four intellectual templates predominate: 1 intentionality and concomitantly 2 teleology 3 resolution of doubts and concomitantly 4 the classification of mixtures. The second and fourth templates form subsets of the first and the third. In this project author Jacob Neusner identifies the occurrences of the four intellectual templates and shows in complete detail where and how the same problems recur time and again.
