It highlights the challenges and the need for active participation of communities for change in behaviour increasing institutional capacities of municipalities for standardising and scaling up strategies which work The authors highlight the need for designing low cost solutions organising informal sanitation workers serving marginalised communities and building effective alliances between communities and institutions to influence public policy Rich in empirical data this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of urban studies public policy governance political science development studies and sociology as well as for CSOs and non governmental organisations NGOs working on urban sanitation urban planning and public policy

Culturally Adapting Psychotherapy for Asian Heritage Populations Wei-Chin Hwang,2016-03-31 Current census reports indicate that over half of the United States will be of ethnic minority background by 2050 Yet few published studies have examined or demonstrated the efficacy of currently established psychological treatments for ethnic minorities

Culturally Adapting Psychotherapy for Asian Heritage Populations An Evidence Based Approach identifies the need for culturally adapted psychotherapy and helps support the cultural competency movement by helping providers develop specific skillsets rather than merely focusing on cultural self awareness and knowledge of other groups The book provides a top down and bottom up community participatory framework for developing culturally adapted interventions that can be readily applied to many other groups Areas targeted for adaptation are broken down into domains principles and the justifying rationales This is one of the first books that provides concrete practical and specific advice for researchers and practitioners alike It is also the first book that provides an actual culturally adapted treatment manual so that the reader can see cultural adaptations in action Summarizes psychotherapy research indicating underrepresentation of ethnic minorities Describes the first evidence based culturally adapted treatment for Asian heritage populations Provides concrete examples of adapted psychotherapy in practice Clarifies how this framework can be further used to adapt interventions for other ethnic groups Highlights how principles used to develop this depression specific treatment can be applied to other disorders Includes the full treatment manual
