Youth and Violent Performativities Ben Arnold Lohmeyer, 2020-06-12 This book challenges the dominant narrative of young people being a uniquely violent group Instead the book critically examines how young people become violent as they enact and resist the available violent performativities in youth It focuses on the experiences of 28 young people in Australia who are subjected to violence who use violence and who resist violence A critical analysis of these young people s messy stories facilitates a reframing of the physical violence routinely attributed to young people as a product of violating systems and structures The author constructs a converging theoretical landscape to re examine youth violence and resistance at the intersection of the sociology of violence and the sociology of youth Drawing on interviews with young Australians the book makes a valuable contribution to contemporary international scholarship on youth and violence while also examining the potential for complicity to violence in youth research and practice In doing so it offers youth scholars and practitioners a framework for reassessing their theoretical frameworks and methods for studying and working with young people in connection with violence

The Bullying Prevention Handbook John H. Hoover, Ronald Oliver, 1996 Bully proof your school with this step by step bullying intervention model for the entire school Included are ten effective intervention methods a five step process for teaching empathy to bullies and assessment and evaluation tools for assessing your needs and successes Are schools safe? Anti-bullying practices in primary schools in contemporary Serbia ,2017-02-21 Master s Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Pedagogy School System Educational and School Politics grade 9 B University of Sarajevo University of Sarajevo and University of Bologny Center for Interdisciplinary Studies course Human rights and Democracy language English abstract The issue discussed in this paper is the problem of school bullying at primary schools in the Republic of Serbia as it is proven to grow as an increasing phenomenon Specifically attention is given to anti bullying practices in primary schools in order to analyze if children are free from violence abuse and neglect The central research question of the research is why bullying is an issue in Serbia and what the responsiveness of public authorities tackling this issue is therefore including the accountability of primary schools in Serbia the responsibility of the educational system for tackling bullying the measures implemented by teachers educators To answer these questions the paper presents the international and national legislative framework a theoretical discussion of bullying as a socio cultural phenomenon together with a list of key events which stirred the general public and a survey The study concludes that bullying is an issue in contemporary Serbia because of overall socio economic conditions in Serbia lack of expert associates within schools inadequate prevention and intervention measures and necessary amendments of the current legislation Also the research confirms the initial hypothesis by which current anti bullying practices in primary schools in Serbia do not stand for effective response and adequate measures to prevent and reduce school bullying
