Winslow Boy:

The Winslow Boy Terence Rattigan, 1973 THE STORY What begins as a small incident ultimately grows into a cause celebre nearly shaking the foundations of the government The incident is simply that of a youngster in an English government school who is expelled for an alleged theft As LIFE, 1947-11-24 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn t as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader s own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere s Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare s Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here How Stage Playwrights Saved the British Cinema, 1930-1956 David Cottis, 2024-12-26 Examines the film careers and work of British playwrights who worked as screenwriters between 1930 1956 During the period between the 1927 Cinematograph Films Act and the new drama of the 1950s many British writers associated with the stage also wrote for films bringing the techniques of the well made play with them Some like Bernard Shaw Noel Coward and Terence Rattigan were screenwriter stars part of the publicity of the films they worked on Pygmalion Brief Encounter The Way to the Stars Others were less celebrated but had long successful screen careers such as R C Sherriff author of Journey s End who worked on films as different as The Invisible Man The Four Feathers and The Dam
