In addition to color swatches, you can use the ability to apply various gradients to objects.

1 With the circle selected, click the Tools Panel button on the toolbar, set the Type to Linear to apply a default gradient. Drag across your object to set a custom path for the gradient.

2 Drag across the artwork to change the length and direction of the gradient path, and drag the midpoint marker to change the midpoint of the gradient between the current colors.

3 Rotate the handle along the path to create a blue-to-purple gradient, which can then be moved along the gradient path.

With a gradient applied, you can adjust the color and the position of the gradient.

With the circle selected, click the Tools Panel button on the toolbar, set the Type to Linear to apply a default gradient. Drag across your object to set a custom path for the gradient.

An alternative to an address to working with gradients directly on the object, there is a Gradients editor available from the Color panel on the toolbar. This Gradients editor gives you high precision drag positioning as well as a few additional options.

You can work with Elliptical and Radial gradients in Adobe Photoshop. To create a radial gradient, use the Type pop-up menu on the top toolbar. Gradients are available on the Color & Layers panels.
