- 4 1 Bigger and stronger boys often hurt or frightened him.
2 At that time it was considered scandalous to promote atheism publicly.
3 His father wouldn't send him any money and he would not have earned much from sales of his poems.
4 His rejection of meat-eating could be seen as way of respecting nature, and his opposition to tyranny made clear his belief in freedom.
5 Writing the novel Frankenstein, which has since been made into many films.

- 6 1 No. "I met a traveller from an antique land who said:"
2 He was proud, arrogant and a tyrant.
3 He believed he was superior to all other rulers; that nobody would ever surpass his power and glory.
4 The King boasts of his great achievements but all that remains there is a huge expanse of sand.
5 He or she had a good appreciation of the king's negative traits, scolding them and making them permanent on the sculpture.
6 Power is only temporary and even the most powerful people are mortal.
7 Art, in this case sculpture and poetry, can last far longer than power or the people who wielded great power.
8 The "level sands" imply that in death all people are equal.

6 To say nothing to Sir Henry, but bring him to meet him.

WHAT DO YOU THINK? Sample answer

The typical sequence of events in a classic detective story is:
(1) the seemingly perfect crime; (2) the wrongly accused suspect; (3) the mistakes of dim-witted police; (4) the greater powers of observation of the detective; and (5) the surprising ending, in which the detective reveals how the identity of the criminal was found.

Education and Society in the Middle East and North Africa Milton George, S. Sergio Saleem Scatolini, 2020-01-17 In the past the Middle East and the so called Muslim world used to be beacons of learning and critical thought Although historical variables such as conquest internal conflict and colonization demoted their position on the global stage changes are now in the offing In these interesting times a growing number of educators thinkers and visionaries are trying both to find and to generate new approaches to the past present and future of the region This book is a collection of articles which reflect on various aspects related to education and society in the Middle East and North Africa also known as the MENA region their peoples and educational processes It provides a platform for people to join the global conversation and to contribute to it with data which are relevant to regional concerns research and practices This is necessary because many of the theories and research findings which are still being used to understand the region were generated elsewhere and despite their lack of regional representativeness were generalized as the most trustworthy interpretive tools across the world Hence there is a need for the world to open up to the voices from the MENA region
