Beyond Blonde Christine Margaret Young,2009 To fulfill the MFA thesis requirements I have the opportunity to play Audrey in Ken Ludwig s Leading Ladies as part of the 2008 UCF SummerStage season Leading Ladies is a two act farce dealing with the shenanigans of two men Jack and Leo who impersonate Florence Snider s long lost nieces in order to gain her fortune Audrey knows Florence and unwittingly provides Jack and Leo with the information they need to succeed in their scam During the course of the play Audrey and Jack fall in love and by the end of the evening they are engaged Ken Ludwig describes Audrey She s about 20 extremely well built and extremely sweet and good natured She s a knockout 20 Although this description focuses mainly on Audrey s appearance her personality is also important While Audrey possesses a certain kind of intelligence she definitely has a unique view of the world that could be construed as na ve innocent or silly Because of this lack of sophistication and the emphasis on her physical appearance the phrase dumb blonde could be attributed to her as the blonde hair color carries specific connotations in contemporary culture American society possesses strong if not basic stereotypes for each color the dumb blonde the intelligent or serious brunette and the spitfire redhead In contemporary entertainment culture blonde women have achieved unique status beyond the stereotypes accorded to their brunette and redheaded counterparts Revered and reviled simultaneously these women cannot be ignored or dismissed The convention of the dumb blonde is at the heart of this issue When scrutinized it is possible to discern at least four distinctions of this stereotype the perceived truly dumb or innocent blonde Johanna in Sweeney Todd the bombshell blonde Lorelei Lee in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes Mae West in Dumb Blonde the dumb but actually intelligent blonde Elle Woods in Legally Blonde Galinda in Wicked and the comedic blonde Adelaide in Guys and Dolls These characters presumably share more than their hair color and sex By researching these blonde stereotypes commonalities will be discovered and assessed for their applicability in character research As this thesis explores the creation of Audrey in Ken Ludwig s Leading Ladies a methodology for creating this type of character will be created Through research and analysis of the various blonde stereotypes an in depth character and script analysis and a journal of the creation process it is my intention to reveal how a non superficial portrayal of this character is possible and can be duplicated Audrey s blonde traits will also be explored as they relate to the character s function within the play emphasizing the ways her specified bloneness serves the play s needs Analysis of the blonde stereotypes script and character analyses and the rehearsal journal will not only create a system for creating this type of character but also will illuminate why this character type is important to comedic theatrical literature
