An Analysis of Jacques Derrida's Structure, Sign, and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences Tim Smith-Laing, 2018-05-20 Jacques Derrida's Structure Sign and Play is one of the most controversial and influential philosophical texts of the 20th century. Delivered at a conference on structuralism at Johns Hopkins, the lecture took aim at the critical and philosophical fashions of the time and radically proposing a world in which meaning cannot be pinned down or traced to an origin but instead is continuously shifting, fleeting, and open to play. Hailed by many as a watershed in philosophy and literary theory, Derrida's lecture has shaped both disciplines. At once dense, brilliant, and humorous, it is a crucial read for anyone interested in questioning our natural assumptions about meaning in the world. A Postmodern Reader Joseph Natoli, Linda Hutcheon, 1993-06-29 These readings are organized into four sections. The first explores the wellsprings of the debates in the relationship between the postmodern and the enterprise it both continues and contravenes: modernism. Here philosophers, social and political commentators, as well as cultural and literary analysts present controversial background essays on the complex history of postmodernism. The readings in the second section debate the possibility or desirability of trying to define the postmodern given its cultural agenda of decentering, challenging, even undermining the guiding master narratives of Western culture. The readings in the third section explore postmodernism's complicated complicity with these very narratives, while the fourth section moves from theory to practice in order to investigate in a variety of fields the common denominators of the postmodern condition in action. Twentieth Century Literary Criticism Bijay Kumar Das, 2005 Considering the great popularity of the first four editions of the book Twentieth Century Literary Criticism and keeping in mind the valuable suggestions received from several quarters, the present fifth edition has been revised and enlarged by an addition of twelve new chapters. It contains fifty chapters in all, organized into two parts. Part I of the book lays emphasis on various schools of criticism that are prevalent in India and the West. Each chapter contains an analysis of the theory in question and shows the trend and development as well as the methodology of literary criticism in the 20th century. Recent issues in twentieth-century criticism—postcolonial theory, translation theory, cultural criticism, and gender studies—are among the many attractions of the book. Part II of the book contains discussions on a large number of critical essays and critics such as Eliot, Richards, Leavis, Barthes, Foucault, and the postcolonial critics. The seminal critical essays included in this section have influenced the critical trends in the twentieth century and changed the general perception of criticism. These chapters, apart from giving a comprehensive idea of the critical concepts, also provide an analytic study of the critical works. Important postcolonial critics like Edward Said, Homi K. Bhabha, and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak have been discussed with new insight. Professor Das has explained the theories and the texts with clarity and precision in a lucid language. This is an invaluable reference book for anyone interested in the field of literary criticism in the twentieth century. Aesthetics, Theory

The key ideas of Jacques Derrida in his essays "Structure, Sign and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences" and "Différance" Issam El Masmodi,2019-12-13 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Philosophy Philosophy of the 20th century Sultan Moulay Sliman University language English abstract This paper tends to deal mainly with Derrida s both essays of Structure Sign and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences and Diff rance It tries to show some of his key ideas and his outstanding status in the postmodern school of thought in the light of his aforementioned essays The first things that come to our minds when we hear the name of Jacques Derrida are Deconstruction Diff rance Post structuralism Post modernism Writing and Differance Of Grammatology and so on This illustrates that we are already familiar with Derrida However the majority of people complain about Derrida s complexity of his writings as well as the difficulty of translating his works One of the most illustrative examples is the preface of Gayatri Chakravorti Spivak to Derrida s Of Grammatology in which she states when the preface is being written by someone other than the author the situation is yet further complicated A pretense at writing before a text that one must have read before the preface can be written Spivak s statement is a real example of the inseparable relationship between reading and writing Reading is breathing in whereas writing is breathing out Alan Bass a translator of Derrida suggests that the difficulty to read Derrida is not a question of his style of writing but rather Derrida challenges the way we are used to read Besides Alan Bass compares the translator of Derrida to a psychoanalyst in the sense that the translator must understand the syntax and lexicon of the original text in order to transform it through his own language This is quite analogous with the attempt of the psychoanalyst to translate the language of dreams into a latent language

Michigan Law Review ,1996 Postmodern Philosophy and Law Douglas E. Litowitz,1997 The author presents a two tiered analysis that views postmodern legal thought as both a collective intellectual movement and as the work of particular theorists notably Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Francois Lyotard and Richard Rorty He concludes that even though postmodern thought does not give rise to a normative theory of right that can be used as a framework for deciding cases it can focus attention on genealogy and discourse and can empower those who have been denied a voice in the legal system Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
