Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 2009-04-21 THINGS FALL APART tells two overlapping intertwining stories both of which center around Okonkwo a strong man of an Ibo village in Nigeria The first of these stories traces Okonkwo's fall from grace with the tribal world in which he lives and in its classical purity of line and economical beauty it provides us with a powerful fable about the immemorial conflict between the individual and society. The second story which is as modern as the first is ancient and which elevates the book to a tragic plane concerns the clash of cultures and the destruction of Okonkwo's world through the arrival of aggressive proselytizing European missionaries. These twin dramas are perfectly harmonized and they are modulated by an awareness capable of encompassing at once the life of nature, human history and the mysterious compulsions of the soul. THINGS FALL APART is the most illuminating and permanent monument we have to the modern African experience as seen from within.

Blazing the Path Fifty Years of Things Fall Apart is a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature. Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones, this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal. The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria's post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village.
