Student A
I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I failed my exams in 2009 and had to retake them the following summer. I'd already decided I wanted to take a gap year then go to business school, so this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly. I passed easily. I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school and then went to business school - I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview before revising my exams.

In my second year as an undergraduate, I spent a semester as an intern at Hewlett Packard, which was very rewarding. In fact, I went straight into a job at HP after I graduated the following June. They encouraged me to do a Master's degree by correspondence - I just have to finish writing a dissertation. I need a break now, but I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time.

When I left school I wasn't sure what to do next. I had applied for a place at university, but while I was revising for my exams I had already decided that I didn't feel ready for university. I had read a lot about East Africa, and one day when I was watching a TV documentary about Ethiopia, I suddenly knew that was where I was going. In fact it was while I was working with an NGO in Ethiopia that I became interested in business.
