presentation of the fundamental teachings of the Great Vehicle or Mahayana is remarkable for its concise style and memorable imagery making it one of the most widely quoted sources in other commentaries on the Mahayana path. The great Indian Buddhist master Nagarjuna first second century C E wrote his celebrated poem Letter to a Friend as a gift of advice to a South Indian king and it has since become a monument in the Indian shastra tradition. Despite its short length only 123 verses Nagarjuna's Letter to a Friend covers the entire Mahayana path combining a practical approach to daily conduct with a theoretical exposition of the different stages leading to enlightenment. It has thus been an ideal source for many of Tibet's great scholars seeking a scriptural authority to enhance their own descriptions of the Buddhist path. Any difficulties in understanding the poem are overcome here by Kangyur Rinpoche's commentary which turns Nagarjuna's sometimes cryptic poem into straightforward prose expanding on each topic and ordering the different subjects in such a way that on returning to the original poem the reader can easily make sense of the advice it contains. It includes headings to explain Nagarjuna's frequent changes in subject and full explanations of the ideas introduced in each verse. In addition to the commentary this book presents the original poem in the Tibetan and in a new English translation that attempts to emulate Nagarjuna's lines of metric verse. Also included are Kangyur Rinpoche's structural outline, a Tibetan line index to enable students to locate quotations used in other Tibetan works, full notes and a glossary.

Twelve Examples of Illusion Jan

Westerhoff, 2010-09-15 Tibetan Buddhist writings frequently state that many of the things we perceive in the world are in fact illusory as echoes or mirages. In Twelve Examples of Illusion Jan Westerhoff offers an engaging look at a dozen illusions including magic tricks, dreams, rainbows and reflections in a mirror showing how these phenomena can give us insight into reality. For instance he offers a fascinating discussion of optical illusions such as the wheel of fire, the wheel seen when a torch is swung rapidly in a circle, discussing Tibetan explanations of this phenomenon as well as the findings of modern psychology and significantly clarifying the idea that most phenomena from chairs to trees are similar illusions. The book uses a variety of crystal clear examples drawn from a wide variety of fields including contemporary philosophy and cognitive science as well as the history of science, optics, artificial intelligence, geometry, economics and literary theory. Throughout Westerhoff makes both Buddhist philosophical ideas and the latest theories of mind and brain come alive for the general reader.

Combining great learning with great humility he was ordained by the Thirteenth Dalai Lama and went on to serve as the head of the Geluk tradition and as the senior tutor to the present Dalai Lama. In temperament and wisdom he had a profound influence on the Dalai Lama's spiritual development and he became a steadying presence for His Holiness during the chaotic changes that defined the Tibetan experience of the twentieth century with the invasion of their country by Communist forces and the subsequent rebuilding of their culture in India.
