

IGCSE English Language Revision Guide

1)

Dear Brother,

How are you? I hope you are doing well in France. But the situation here is not so good. The city is in the grip of a deadly plague that has claimed countless lives already. The streets are empty, and the air is filled with the stench of death and despair.

Our family has not been spared from the impact of this dreadful disease. Our neighbours and friends are falling ill one by one, and many have already died. We are doing all we can to stay healthy and safe, but fear and uncertainty are taking the toll on us.

Food and supplies are becoming scarce, and prices are skyrocketing. The markets are no longer bustling with people, and many shops and businesses have closed their doors. We have had to take extreme measures to protect ourselves, such as avoiding public places and staying indoors as much as possible.

As a mother, I'm fearing for the safety and well-being of my children. I pray every day that they will be spared from this terrible plague and that we will all emerge from this ordeal unharmed. I also worry about the long-term consequences of the plague on our city and its people. Will we ever fully recover from this catastrophe?

Despite the darkness and despair that surrounds us, I hold on to the hope that we will eventually overcome this crisis. I have faith in the resilience and strength of our community, and I believe that we will emerge from this experience stronger and more united than ever before.

Please keep us in your thoughts and prayers during these trying times.

With love and hope,
Judy

2) a)

- "frantically scurried" - This phrase effectively portrays the frenzied and panicked movements of rats as they rushed through the mounds of waste in search of food, which created an image of chaos and desperation among the rats.
- "oily bodies" - This phrase conjures an unpleasant image of the rats' greasy and grimy fur, making it easier for readers to imagine the pests and their unhygienic nature.
