

Performance Task Assessment

Reporting to the President

After reading sections two through six of the executive branch, local, and national news in the newspaper, Mrs. and Mrs. Belmont are meeting with President Wilson to discuss the following questions:

1. How healthy is our country? Is independence more important than unity? How should we deal with the states and their own laws? Is it right to give the states more power and give the federal government less? How should we deal with the states and their own laws? Is it right to give the states more power and give the federal government less? How should we deal with the states and their own laws? Is it right to give the states more power and give the federal government less?

Answer these questions as carefully as you can. All answers must use specific facts from your newspaper to show us how you think. A good answer always includes: background, a list of facts, a list of possible solutions and your solution to the problem, a list of possible consequences of each of the solutions, a list of the best solution, a list of the best solution, a list of the best solution, a list of the best solution.

2. Using the information you gathered in the first question, discuss the following questions: How should we deal with the states and their own laws? Is it right to give the states more power and give the federal government less? How should we deal with the states and their own laws? Is it right to give the states more power and give the federal government less?
