Josep M. Massana,2000 Troubled Minds Arne S. Steinforth,2009 Every society has its own definition of a normal and an abnormal human condition For persons living with mental disorders these concepts have a tremendous impact This study investigates how the abnormal mind is culturally defined in Mala i South Eastern Africa Based on anthropological techniques such as interviews participant observation and archive research it explores the different social dimensions of mental disorder e g its reflection in traditional dance rituals in behavioural rules during pregnancy or in the healing ministry of independent churches It demonstrates how local explanations of mental disorder be it witchcraft an angry ancestor or the will of God determine the social acceptance of an affected person's condition. Recent processes of cultural change however strengthen the pluralism of Malawian religious landscape opening the local debate to an ever wider range of interpretations. Visions for Racial Equality Harri Englund, 2022-02-17. Focusing on David Clement Scott the head of the Church of Scotland mission in Malawi who came to see Europeans as learners in Africa this innovative book narrates the rise and demise of a unique vision for racial equality in nineteenth century Africa. By immersing himself in the vernacular language and institutions Scott developed a theology of reversals to pursue justice in race relations. It set him on a collision course with the Church colonial government and the White commercial interests spearheaded by Cecil Rhodes. Harri Englund shows how Scott's struggle for justice was as much epistemic as political and spiritual a vision for the future in which White and Black would thrive in their mutual recognition as co-knowers. From linguistic translation to conflicts over land and taxation from slave trade to personal intimacies Visions for Racial Equality weaves a rich tapestry of themes in the life and times of a little known visionary.

The African Book Publishing Record, 2005. Intractable problems of human rights Thoko Kaime, Bonolo Dinokopila, 2025-12-30. Despite tremendous strides in the legal and institutional protection of human rights in Africa which has seen the African Union champion the ever growing framework of treaties and institutions dedicated to human rights protection many African citizens still suffer the yoke of human rights abuses. In some cases their situations seem worse than they were before the advent of widespread constitutional protection. Despite the establishment of these extensive legal frameworks why do human rights violations still persist on a large scale. The chapters in this book address this core question by focusing on three intractable problems of human rights which are defined by the seeming impossibility of resolving them.

Meaning of Justice in African Philosophy Grivas Muchineripi Kayange, 2023-11-27. The book examines the meaning of justice in African political philosophy building on the use theoretical approach. Currently most of the philosophical works in this context advocate for a communal interpretation of the meaning of justice such as the relational theory of justice and Ubuntu justice as fairness. The author argues that this foundation of justice in the community undermines the self which is a major problem with these theories. As an attempt to go beyond communitarianism in African thought the book recognizes other philosophical frameworks for elaborating the meaning of justice in ordinary people's experience such as vitalism, theism, ubuntuism and semantic framework. The author opts for a reconstructed ubuntu based theory of the meaning of justice that reflects the traditional African experience and recuperates valuing self existence and valuing other existence as its foundations. The book further identifies the centrality of rights in defining justice in traditional African communities.

Journal of Humanities, 2002. From Home and Exile Woods, Joanna, 2014-12-04. This book is about home. With Malawi as its focus it seeks to understand ideas about home as expressed through poetry written by Malawians in English. Although African Literatures are studied those of Malawi have not received agreeable attention. This book surveys poetry by five Malawian writers: Felix Mnthali, Frank Chipasula, Jack Mapanje, Lupenga Mphande and Steve Chimombo. The discussion negotiates scribed experience of exile engendered by Dr Banda's regime and shows that the selected poets effectively converse with a sense of home reflecting on its transformations in their work. Interrogating the strict definitions of home, the argument highlights that far from homeless exiles, in fact, they clarify the sense of what home is. The manoeuvre is one of thinking towards an unbound home. This book will be of value not only to readers interested in the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in worldwide literary phenomena and ideas therein of home and exile.

Embodiment in Cross-Linguistic Studies, 2025-11-20 Over the past two decades, linguistic research into embodiment has paid considerable attention to the human body and its individual parts, particularly within typological and cognitively oriented studies. This volume continues that line of inquiry with a specific focus on the lower limb. It shows that, like other major body parts, the lower limb serves as a highly productive source domain for a wide range of conceptualisations across the world's languages and cultures. More generally, the book contributes to the growing body of work at the intersection of cognition, language, and culture. It also engages with embodiment theory, which posits that human cognition and language are fundamentally grounded in sensory-motor experience. Contributors are Kelsie Pattillo, Jaime Pe, a Gema Silva, Franklin Espinoza, Marleny Rodríguez, Ma gorzata Wa niewska, Rosanna Tramutoli, Izabela Will, Joseph Jaoko Ochieng, Annika Tjuka, Cristina Martins Fargetti, Carmen L. cia Reis, Rodrigues Judit, Baranyin K. czy Iwona Kraska, Szlenk Yi, Tie Yongxian, Luo, and Mateus Cruz Maciel de Carvalho.

Malawi Samuel Decalo, 1995. Landlocked Malawi is a poor agrarian Central African state stretching west along the elongated lake of the same name. The country first came to global prominence because of the explorations and anti-slavery pleas of Dr Livingstone and once again in the 1950s when Nyasaland, as it then was, refused to be merged by Britain with the two Rhodesias in the Central African Federation. Dr Hastings Banda led the nationalist movement, a campaign of civil disobedience that forged a nation and finally gained the fragile country independence as Malawi. Professor Decalo lists the most pertinent and recent books and articles on Malawi and briefly refers the reader to an additional 250 works.
