Modern Methods in High School Teaching Harl Roy Douglass,1926 This volume addresses teachers and principals presenting a comprehensive treatment of the methods of teaching in high schools The author assumes a familiarity on the part of his readers with the nature of the learning process adolescence and the psychological foundations of interests and motives as they relate to whole hearted pupil activity The fundamentals of both theory and practice are set forth and an attempt has been made to outline and describe the newer types of procedure which are being employed in different subjects in the best secondary schools Throughout the volume the attempt has been made clearly to represent practices rather than to advocate their adoption The reader is permitted to draw his own conclusions The book will appeal to the type of reader who wants to be intelligent about what is going on in high school teaching The Education Index ,1985 The High Technical and Professional Writing George E. Kennedy,Tracy T. Montgomery,2002 Taking a research based integrated problem solving approach to technical and professional writing this volume provides a model that illustrates real working world solutions to problems that readers are likely to encounter in the workplace Designed to show that problem solving is a multidimensional process each chapter begins with a short scenario case study that deals with theoretical or applied issues of technical and professional communication thereby preparing users to excel in the professional world The volume addresses a variety of forms of professionalism and problem solving including technical and rhetorical problem solving solving problems through research reports and completion reports proposals letters and memoranda s solving problems through trip reports feasibility studies and lab reports policy statements manuals and procedures as well as solving problems in the professional job search through document design and through oral presentations For business professionals and others who would benefit from enhanced problem solving skills Bulletin University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign
