As Stella meets his ex and his friends at his club, all of whom seem to know something she doesn't, she wonders if Chris is really the man she thought he was. As she learns more about his past and discovers his dark side, she wonders if she has made a big mistake. Beneath its trimmed hedges and gleaming storefronts, Stella soon realizes that this wealthy town hides terrible secrets. But before she can decide what to do, a murder leaves her blindsided. Stella's future is on the line; she has no choice but to investigate. As her dreams devolve into hell, Stella still struggles to overcome her own traumatic past, questions everything around her, including her own sanity. Can she find the killer and clear her name before it's too late?

The case becomes personal for Stella, the memories hitting way too close to home for her. Stirring up her past trauma, she struggles to hang on until she can solve the first big case of her new career. The stakes couldn't be higher. And the killer is still out there. It's 2070 and climate change has ravaged the planet and destroyed national government, leaving cities to their own rule. Born with one arm and left for dead as an infant, Hope Mulder has struggled to find her place in life in the city of Prosperity Way. Hope's greatest desire is to be part of the Elite Front, a group of highly trained soldiers who protect the city, keep order, and carry out the wishes of the Supreme Valor, the ruler of Prosperity Way, but she faces the doubt and derision of those who see only her disability. At the age of twenty-one, Hope's dream is realized; she is accepted into the Elite Front training program. As she throws herself into her training, her loving adoptive parents try to warn her about the choices she is making and how they may set her on a path of no return.
