Political Melodies in the Pews? David L. Moody,2012-09-27 In this fascinating study of contemporary Christian worshippers David L Moody analyzes Christian rap music against traditional Christian theology For many mixing the sanctified worship of God with music originating from unconsecrated avenues has become difficult to accept From the back alleys and streets of the hood to the club scene of urban America Christian rappers walk to a different beat than the preacher at the pulpit However similar to a street evangelist the Black Christian rapper is about singing praise to God and delivering the gospel message to his lost homies on the streets Moody examines the emergence of hip hop based ministries and their place among youth with the Black community God'S Church, God'S Money, False Profits M. L. Petty,2011-09-30 For years I agonized over writing a book to address the many questions concerning Gods church today The following are some of those questions and concerns Are you being deceived from the pulpit Does the church use offerings for Gods purpose What is the pastors salary and compensation Does your Pastor conform to or live like those in the world Are detailed financial statements distributed to each member Should you continue to give money to your church Are you sure that your church is the place for you to worship God After much prayer and study I felt the need to accept the challenge to address these questions in this book entitled Gods Church Gods Money False Profits It is with some trepidation that I approach these issues because for some the revelations may be uncomfortable to acknowledge or accept And for others they will find truth that will set them free John 8 32 Social Media and Ministry Sharing the Gospel in the Digital Age Kenneth
