Law and Policy of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, Howard Chitimira, Patrick C. Osode, 2025-12-25 The Africa We Want has developed as a critical long term development strategy for the African continent and has never been more relevant than in this book which provides a thorough examination of the African Continental Free Trade Area's role in expanding intra African commerce and strengthening Africa's trade position in the world market. Gathering chapters written by experts on commercial law, economic law, international trade law and related fields, it seeks to answer the following question: what are the issues that influence the African Continental Free Trade Area's potential and challenges? The book provides an in-depth analysis of various contemporary aspects within the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) as well as country-specific case studies and comparative analyses of selected developments that inform the AfCFTA. As the authors show, the AfCFTA faces substantial and numerous challenges that include the existence of different regulatory environments in different countries, political instability, technical and technological shortcomings, businesses' inability to obtain credit from banks among other issues. This book will appeal to trade lawyers, economists, financial and prudential regulation analysts, researchers, policy and development analysts, government officials among others. The book highlights the undeniable need for adequate continental legislative and policy frameworks to facilitate intra Africa trade, foreign direct investment and ease of doing business on the continent. The African Continental Free Trade Area World Bank, 2020-09-10 The African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) agreement will create the largest free trade area in the world, measured by the number of countries participating. The pact will connect 1.3 billion people across 55 countries with a combined GDP valued at 3.4 trillion. It has the potential to lift 30 million people out of extreme poverty by 2035. But achieving its full potential will depend on putting in place significant policy reforms and trade facilitation measures. The scope of the agreement is considerable. It will reduce tariffs among member countries and cover policy areas such as trade facilitation and services, as well as regulatory measures such as sanitary standards and technical barriers to trade. It will complement existing subregional economic communities and trade agreements by offering a continent-wide regulatory framework and by regulating policy areas such as investment and intellectual property rights protection that have not been covered in most subregional agreements. The African Continental Free Trade Area: Economic and Distributional Effects quantifies the long-term implications of the agreement for growth, trade, poverty reduction and employment. Its analysis goes beyond that in previous studies that have largely focused on tariff and nontariff barriers in goods by including the effects of services and trade facilitation measures, as well as the distributional impacts on poverty, employment and wages of female and male workers. It is designed to guide policy makers as they develop and implement the extensive range of reforms needed to realize the substantial rewards that the agreement offers. The analysis shows that full implementation of AfCFTA could boost income by 7 percent or nearly 450 billion in 2014 prices and market exchange rates.

The agreement would also significantly expand African trade particularly intraregional trade in manufacturing In addition it would increase employment opportunities and wages for unskilled workers and help close the wage gap between men and women

Inclusive Trade in Africa David Luke, Jamie Macleod, 2019-04-01 Providing the first book length analysis of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA this volume asks how can it be ensured that the AfCFTA is effectively implemented to deliver inclusive trade in Africa The African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA will cover an African market of 1.2 billion people and GDP of over 2.5 trillion across all 55 member States of the African Union Yet trade policy increasingly appreciates that free trade is not enough trade must also be inclusive to deliver developmental benefits With contributions from leading trade policy authors across Africa and beyond this book offers insights into the development and implementation of the AfCFTA and serves as a reference for stakeholders interested in trade in Africa more broadly The contributors assess what important lessons can be drawn from the experiences of regional integration in and beyond Africa including from success stories like ASEAN as well as from failures like the Free Trade Agreement of the Americas An important new work for researchers and policymakers focusing on African trade and economic policy and trade policy more generally

Africa-EU Relations and the African Continental Free Trade Area Leon Mwamba Tshimpaka, Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2024-05-26 This book examines the establishment and implementation of the AfCFTA which is the largest free trade area globally covering 54 African countries It explores how this initiative has the potential to reshape Africa EU relations by promoting intra African trade economic integration and diversification as well as inter regional trade Both continents have the potential to serve as global actors in reshaping the global order in ways that can affect how multilateralism fosters inclusive development However whether this will happen would be a function of how the EU and AU define their interests and relationship

THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST AFRICA Charles Akujieze, 2023-09-23 The Conspiracy Against Africa unveils a resonating truth that echoes across borders With insightful precision the book navigates the intricate reasons behind Africa's ongoing economic challenges and subjugation Tracing the pages of history the narrative illuminates the complex interplay between the West and Africa Here Africa's path to prosperity is shackled by the West's unquenchable appetite for its resources This chokehold on Africa's raw materials keeps the global equilibrium but at what expense Unraveling layers of inefficiency ethical cracks and integrity gaps the book dissects Africa's relationship with the Western world It exposes vested interests that hold back progress with unyielding tenacity Yet within this stark analysis a call to arms resounds a rallying cry brimming with urgency and optimism inviting every African to reclaim their essence and dreams This stands as a pivotal turning point urging Africans to cast aside shadows that bind them seizing the reins of fate and forging a destiny that defies exploitation The Conspiracy Against Africa is more than a book it's an awakening an assertion of empowerment amidst suppression It lays bare truths long obscured inviting you on this narrative journey to reclaim Africa's story and usher in an era of empowerment justice and self determination

Albert G. Zeufack, Fulbert Tchana Tchana, Aly Sanoh, 2024-04-05 In 2019 African heads of state and governments launched in fanfare the African Continental Free Trade Agreement AfCFTA a historic agreement for economic transformation across the continent But now comes the hard bit how to make the agreement a success In this book senior experts from across the world come together to provide a comprehensive analysis of the conditions needed for AfCFTA to successfully spur economic development in Africa It puts forward three foundations for success demography dividend digital economy and economic diversification In addition to trade policy the book recommends that African policymakers should strengthen fiscal and monetary policy coordination adopt and implement the appropriate regulatory environment and build suitable connectivity infrastructure The stakes are high If implemented correctly the book argues that AfCFTA could speed up trade within Africa which could double every five years Success would mean growth investment changing trade patterns jobs economic transformation poverty reduction and a continental market for services Driven by concrete evidence based strategies for long term growth this book is an essential read for policy makers development practitioners economics researchers and everyone with an interest in the future of Africa The African Continental Free Trade Area Evita

Schmieg,2020 Zusammenfassung The Agreement Establishing the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA came into force in May 2019 Ultimately the AfCFTA is designed to create a comprehensive African market what is does at this stage is set in motion a set of complex and foreseeably very lengthy negotiations The outcome of that process will not yet be full free trade in Africa but it will bring about a reduction in tariffs with the potential to stimulate production and trade and boost regional value chains It is however too early to be discussing modifying the European Union s trade policy towards Africa or for this to be an issue for the upcoming German Council Presidency Nevertheless Germany and the European Union should continue to follow and support the process of establishing the AfCFTA which is an important political process with significant long term economic potential for Africa
