House of Commons,1901 Enlightenment in the Colony Aamir R. Mufti,2009-01-10 Enlightenment in the Colony opens up the history of the Jewish question for the first time to a broader discussion one of the social exclusion of religious and cultural minorities in modern times and in particular the crisis of Muslim identity in modern India Aamir Mufti identifies the Hindu Muslim conflict in India as a colonial variation of what he calls the exemplary crisis of minority Jewishness in Europe He shows how the emergence of this conflict in the late nineteenth century represented an early instance of the reinscription of the Jewish question in a non Western society undergoing modernization under colonial rule In so doing he charts one particular route by which this European phenomenon linked to nation states takes on a global significance Mufti examines the literary dimensions of this crisis of identity through close readings of canonical texts of modern Western mostly British literature as well as major works of modern Indian literature in Urdu and English He argues that the one characteristic shared by all emerging national cultures since the nineteenth century is the minoritization of some social and cultural fragment of the population and that national belonging and minority separatism go hand in hand with modernization Enlightenment in the Colony calls for the adoption of secular minority and exilic perspectives in criticism and intellectual life as a means to critique the very forms of marginalization that give rise to the uniquely powerful minority voice in world literatures The Illustrated Weekly of India ,1982 Catalogue of Library Books, June 1980 Pakistan. Enquiry Commission,1955 From the Seams of History Bharati Ray,1995 The ten essays which make up the body of this book are drawn from a wide variety of disciplines and weave a complex pattern of the experiences of women in India over the last one hundred years The book departs from traditional historiography which has given inadequate attention to women and in this sense From the Seams of History attempts to rewrite history Beginning with the debate on widow remarriage in Bengal and Haryana the book moves on to examine how the new fashions in clothing of the Bengali gentlewomen in the nineteenth century were tailored according to the values and anxieties of their dominant male counterparts The argument of male domination is taken further in an essay demonstrating that male oppression of women in Indian society was in fact remarkably similar to that of the colonial masters Report Punjab, Pakistan (Province).
