Mobilities from the Global South Carola Bauschke-Urban, Dorina Dedgjoni, 2025-03-06 This interdisciplinary collection explores student mobilities from the Global South focusing on how class ethnicity and gender influence decisions experiences and outcomes in studying abroad Featuring post colonial perspectives from Brazil Indonesia Ghana and India the collection highlights the unique challenges and opportunities faced by these students It includes personal narratives that add a qualitative dimension illustrating the individual agency and resilience of international students The role of educational institutions and policies in shaping mobility is also addressed including a discussion of how universities and governments create opportunities or barriers Overall this collection provides valuable insights into the interplay of class ethnicity and gender in shaping educational trajectories from the Global South By centering student perspectives it examines national transnational and institutional factors that either promote or inhibit mobility It will be of interest to students lecturers researchers ministries and NGOs working on higher education research and migration studies

Understanding the Higher Education Market in Africa Emmanuel Mogaji, Felix Maringe, Robert Ebo Hinson, 2020-03-06 This book offers theoretical and practical insights into the marketing of higher education in Africa It explores the key players challenges and policies affecting higher education across the continent their marketing strategies and the students selection process While acknowledging the vast size of the continent this book aims to provide an understanding of the dynamics of higher education in Africa This book recognises the private and government involvement in higher education provision and students and staff as stakeholders in the marketisation process Strategic efforts are directed by universities to attract prospective students This book further addresses issues such as the responses of higher education sectors to the notion of markets and marketing consumerism and competition in higher education in Africa conceptions of the commodification of higher education in Africa and the dominance of Western epistemologies and their influence in transforming higher education sectors Students as consumers in increasingly marketised higher education sectors in Africa are also discussed Though primarily for marketing students and academic researchers the book s feature of blended theoretical and practical knowledge means that it will also be of interest to marketing practitioners and university managers

Making Language Visible in the University Bee Bond, 2020-08-05 This book focuses on the nexus of language disciplinary content and knowledge communication against the background of the economic cultural and ideological forces of Higher Education s current push for internationalisation It suggests the need for a greater synergy between language and content experts and argues that change needs to be implemented through policy rather than on an ad hoc basis by individual teachers It is a call to action for English for Academic Purposes practitioners to find a way out of the silo of their own centres and work to assert influence over the wider context in which they work The book begins and ends in the practice of teaching with a focus throughout on understanding the barriers and enablers to that practice within a particular context
