Climate Change Adaptations in Dryland Agriculture in Semi-Arid Areas Xavier Poshiwa, G. Ravindra

Chary, 2022-02-10 This book highlights the approaches for achieving trans disciplinary research integration for semi arid dryland agriculture systems under changing climates while also identifying the elements of a collaborative research agenda that are needed to advance global food security The book emphasizes climate change being a reality and how drylands are bearing the brunt in diverse ways The major impact of dryland agriculture is on communities that need to avoid the short and long term impacts of the changing climate adapt strategies that can minimize these impacts and be able to mitigate climate change for which they need climate smart interventions These interventions are only realized through knowledge and experience sharing among stakeholders from different sectors and backgrounds It is in this context that the publication was seen as a necessity in order to bring together ideas that will transform lives and build adaptation capacities thereby providing the much needed products in communities leading to development

Zimbabwe is advancing climate change adaptation in its livestock sector with key strategies reflected in both its initial and updated nationally determined contributions NDCs Although various climate smart practices are already being implemented through livestock support programs their contributions to adaptation and mitigation remain largely undocumented resulting in their omission from the NDCs To address this the Department of Livestock Research has introduced a Tier 2 greenhouse gas GHG inventory for cattle allowing for more accurate assessments of mitigation potential and informing the 2025 NDC update This report brings together insights from literature reviews policy analysis and stakeholder consultations to evaluate the current policy landscape for livestock related climate action It highlights the sector s growing vulnerability to climate change including feed scarcity disease outbreaks and declining productivity The report identifies key policy gaps and stresses the importance of capacity building data driven planning and inclusive engagement to enhance climate resilience and reduce emissions in the livestock sector

Saving Zimbabwe Bob Scott, 2012-02-10 Saving Zimbabwe is the gripping story of a group of extraordinary black and white Zimbabweans who lived together forming The Community of Reconciliation They chose love over hate and integration over segregation They believed in harmony over discord and that loving your former enemies was a higher way of life Against all odds they succeeded in transforming a region of the nation in to a life giving community By example they demonstrated that the course of Zimbabwe could be changed and provided a working model for the road ahead Tragically on 25 November 1987 the sixteen white members of the Community made the ultimate sacrifice and were martyrd Their killers thought they were liberating their people but in fact drove the black community back under the oppressive forces of poverty Why did they die This book takes you on a journey to discover the answer to that haunting question and more With the current political and economic uncertainty in Zimbabwe the message of Saving Zimbabwe is more relevant than ever The country needs transformation which should start in the heart of her people The destiny of a nation and millions of lives are at stake Zimbabwe Agricultural Journal ,1986 Zimbabwe's Agricultural Policy Framework, 1995-2020 Zimbabwe,1995 Issues in Agricultural Research: 2013 Edition ,2013-05-01 Issues in Agricultural Research 2013 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions book that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Phillipines and Agriculture The editors have built Issues in Agricultural Research 2013 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Phillipines and Agriculture in this book to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Issues in Agricultural Research 2013 Edition has been produced by the world s leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com>
