Members of the middle class in colonial Malabar left behind a copious amount of writings These are to be found among other places in magazines autobiographies and diaries This book explores the social history of the middle class in the region during the British period on the basis of these writings in combination with archival sources It delves into how they conceptualized domesticity forged new friendships cutting across caste and sometimes even racial lines and the new forms of leisure they envisaged The author also analyses the dilemmas the group faced as it responded to the changes unleashed by colonial modernity at their work places in the public sphere and inside homes where they desperately clung on to tradition even while accepting much of what the West had to offer Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka      India Who's who , 1979      Tribal And Regional Language Question Bank UGC NTA NET Assistant Professors Mocktime Publication, 101-01-01
