The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Riflemen Form Ian F. W. Beckett,2007-07-30 Lt Gen Sir Garnet Wolseley commented that history would record the formation of the Volunteers Movement as one of the most remarkable events in the century In this study of the Rifle Volunteer Movement the author Ian Beckett has drawn from a wide range of primary source material such as official regimental local and private repositories He has been able to put into perspective the Movement within the structure of the Victorian and Edwardian social political and military affairs from its formation in 1859 to its absorption in the Territorial Force in 1908 Irrigation and River Basin Management Mark Svendsen,2005 With increasing water scarcity pressure to re allocate water from agriculture to other uses mounts along with a need to put in place institutional arrangements to promote higher value uses of water Many developing countries are now experimenting with establishing new institutional arrangements for managing water at the river basin level This book based on research by IWMI and others reviews basin management in six developed and developing countries It describes and applies a functional theory of river basin management based on the idea that there is a minimum set of functions required to manage basins effectively and a set of basic conditions that enable effective management institutions to emerge The book examines the experiences of both developed and developing countries in order to see what lessons can be learned and to identify what constitutes the core of a theory of river basin management It concludes that although it is difficult for developing countries to adopt approaches and institutional designs directly from developed countries basic principles and lessons are transferable South Asian Studies ,1997 Livestock and the Environment Ralph H.
