remembrance of their life together written shortly after her early death includes harrowing descriptions of their wartime sufferings as well as idyllic depictions of romantic bliss Yu Huai offers a group portrait of Nanjing courtesans mixing personal memories with reported anecdotes Writing fifty years after the fall of the Ming he expresses a deep nostalgia for courtesan culture that bears the toll of individual loss and national calamity Together they shed light on the sensibilities of late Ming intellectuals their recollections of refined pleasures and ruminations on the vagaries of memory coexist with political engagement and a belief in bearing witness With an introduction and extensive annotations Plum Shadows and Plank Bridge is a valuable source for the literature of remembrance the representation of women and the social role of intellectuals during a tumultuous period in Chinese history
