

Notes to financial statements

Introduction to the notes

The notes to the financial statements (the notes) explain items and elaborate on the financial information presented in the body of the financial statements. The notes comprise statements which identify the accounting policies of the entity which must be disclosed in the Summary of Significant Accounting Policies.

While there can be many different notes included, these are some common ones:

+

- Inventory (methods)
- PPE (depreciation methods)
- Contingencies and commitments (accounting for them)
- Changes in accounting policies (retrospective/prospective)
