Courageous Conversations in the Classroom, Teaching with Text Sets Mary Ann Cappiello, Erika Thulin Dawes, 2012-10-01 Looking for a way to increase engagement differentiate instruction and incorporate more informational text and student writing into your curriculum Teaching with Text Sets is your answer This must have resource walks you through the steps to create and use multi genre multimodal text sets for content area and language arts study It provides detailed information to support you as you choose topics locate and evaluate texts organize texts for instruction and assess student learning This guide is an excellent resource to help you meet the College and Career Readiness and other state standards Strategies That Work Stephanie Harvey, Anne Goudvis, 2017 In this new edition of their groundbreaking book Strategies That Work Stephanie Harvey and Anne Goudvis share the work and thinking they've done since the second edition came out a decade ago and offer new perspectives on how to explicitly teach thinking strategies so that students become engaged thoughtful independent readers Thirty new lessons and new and revised chapters shine a light on children's thinking curiosity and questions Steph and Anne tackle close reading close listening text complexity and critical thinking in a new chapter on building knowledge through thinking intensive reading and learning Other fully revised chapters focus on digital reading strategies for integrating comprehension and technology and comprehension across the curriculum The new edition is organized around three sections Part I provides readers with a solid introduction to reading comprehension instruction including the principles that guide practice suggestions for text selection and a review of recent research that underlies comprehension instruction Part II contains lessons to put these principles into practice for all areas of reading comprehension Part III shows you how to integrate comprehension instruction across the curriculum and the school day particularly in science and social studies Updated bibliographies including the popular Great Books for Teaching Content are accessible online Since the first publication of Strategies That Work more than a million teachers have benefited from Steph and Anne's practical advice on creating classrooms that are incubators for deep thought This third edition is a must have resource for a generation of new teachers and a welcome refresher for those with dog eared copies of this timeless guide to teaching comprehension Translation and Objects Ma Carmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2024-08-06 Translation and Objects offers a new and original perspective in Translation Studies originating from the conviction that in today's world translation is pervasive Building on the ideas of scholars who have expanded the boundaries of the discipline this book focuses on the analysis of objects that migrants carry with them on their journey of migration The ideas of displacement and constant movement are key throughout these pages Migrants live translation literally because displacement is a leitmotif for them Translation and Objects analyzes migrant objects such as shoes stones or photographs as translation sites that function as expressions as well as sources of emotions These displaced emotional objects laden with meanings and sentiments tell many stories saying a great deal about their owners who almost never have a voice This book shows how meaning is displaced through the materiality texture smells sensations and forms of moving objects Including examples of translations that have been created from a non-linguistic perspective and exploring linguistic issues whilst connecting them to other fields such as anthropology and sociology Vidal sets out a broad vision of translation This is critical reading for translation theory courses within Translation Studies comparative literature and cultural studies With the exception of Chapter 3 no part of this book may be reprinted or reproduced or utilised in any form or by any electronic mechanical or other means now known or hereafter invented including photocopying and recording or in any information storage or retrieval system without permission in writing from the publishers
