Mainstreaming Pacifism Sara Trovato,2015-12-24 Mainstreaming Pacifism Conflict success and ethics takes on the challenge of answering the widespread objection that pacifism is ineffective The book proposes a classification of 11 effectual means to an end fraud violence force gain legality masses ideology dialogue humanity time vulnerability and shows how such means have been at work both in the pages of classical political authors Machiavelli Montesquieu Marx and Gandhi and throughout history Such effectual means are not only theoretically described but are related to up to date experimental research are observed in action when conflicts arise and the general laws that govern their functioning are described The main goal of the book is to show that violence is only one of such potentially successful political means In presence of the political decision to act peacefully in international relations apt combinations of non violent effectual means may succeed over violence The challenge taken on in this book is staying faithful to the topic of political success while offering arguments for a peaceful resolution of conflicts The result is an original cross investigation which gives visibility to an intriguing notion effectuality that has been silently at work throughout political philosophy without ever having been thematized
