The School Librarian ,2005 Thinking Seriously about Youth Work, and how to Prepare People to Do it Council of Europe,2017 If we consider the 50 states having ratified the European Cultural Convention of the Council of Europe or the member states of the European Union the multiple and divergent nature of the realities theories concepts and strategies underlying the expression youth work becomes evident Across Europe youth work takes place in circumstances presenting enormous differences with regard to opportunities support structures recognition and realities and how it performs reflects the social cultural political and economic context and the value systems in which it is undertaken By analysing theories and concepts of youth work and by providing insight from various perspectives and geographical and professional backgrounds the authors hope to further contribute to finding common ground for and thus assure the quality of youth work in general Presenting its purified and essential concept is not the objective here The focus rather is on describing how to provide opportunities for all young people to shape their own futures as Peter Lauritzen described the fundamental mission of youth work The best way to do this remains an open question This Youth Knowledge book tries to find some answers and strives to communicate the strengths capacities and impact of youth work to those within the youth sector and those beyond to those familiar with its concepts and those new to this field all the while sharing practices and insights and encouraging further reflection Prospects ,2000 Global Education Digest 2011 ,2011 This book examines trends in secondary education which is the next great challenge for many countries approaching universal primary education Defining and Selecting Key Competencies Dominique Simone Rychen,Laura Hersh Salganik,2001 What skills and competencies are needed for individuals to lead a successful and responsible life both in the workplace and in other social environments and for society to face the challenges of the present and future What are the foundations normative theoretical and conceptual for defining and selecting a limited set of key competencies These are among the important questions of considerable relevance for fields such as education and training employment social affairs and welfare health and justice that provided the starting point for an international and interdisciplinary endeavor carried out by the Swiss Federal Statistical Office and the National Center for Education Statistics US Department of Education under the auspices of the Organization for Economic Co operation and Development OECD The current volume which has resulted from this work compiles essays from renowned scholars who explore these questions from multiple perspectives anthropology economics history philosophy psychology and sociology along with commentaries from leading representatives of policy and practice who provide an important complement to the reflection on key competencies This volume thus presents a multifaceted sketch of issues related to defining and selecting key competencies in an open still ongoing debate at national and international levels The Sport Psychologist ,2005 Vocational Guidance ,1994 Young People's Experiences of Loss and Bereavment Jane Ribbens McCarthy,2006-10 Everyone from health care workers to family therapists will find a treasure trove of insight into how young people deal with the deaths of loved ones This book draws together a range of research and includes narrative based case studies to compose a comprehensive overview of various theories and research EFA Global Monitoring Report ,2010 Lifeskills and Leadership Camps Mika Niskanen,2006 Describes the planning implementation and evaluation of the first two lifeskills and leadership camps for HIV AIDS affected children in Lao PDR which were arranged in Champassach and Vientiane province in early 2006 Development Outreach ,2007 Challenges of Quality Education in Sub-Saharan

African Countries D. N. Sifuna, Nobuhide Sawamura, 2010 Quality is at the heart of all education systems as good quality teaching and learning environments ensure effective learning outcomes Quality influences what students learn how well they learn and what benefits they draw from their education The quest to ensure that students achieve decent learning outcomes and acquire values and skills that help them play a positive role in their societies is an issue on the policy agenda of nearly every country As many world governments struggle to expand particularly basic education they also face the challenge of ensuring that students stay in school long enough to acquire the knowledge they need to cope in a rapidly changing world The purpose of this book is therefore to profile some aspects of education quality in the African education systems and highlight key policies for improving the teaching and learning outcomes The book is also intended to provide basic information to scholars who are interested in studying education in the Sub Saharan African region To enable users understand and appreciate developments trends and changes that have taken place in the education systems for most chapters the book deliberately adopts a historical approach which leads to some focus on developments which date back to the colonial period in Africa
