Richard Clayderman

Piano

The first system of musical notation for 'Aline' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and features a melodic line with a long, sweeping slur across the first two measures, followed by eighth-note patterns. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

The second system continues the piece. The upper staff shows a continuation of the melodic line with some rests and eighth-note runs. The lower staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment. The key signature remains one sharp.

The third system of notation shows further development of the melody in the upper staff, including some sixteenth-note passages. The bass line continues with its consistent eighth-note pattern. The key signature is still one sharp.

The fourth and final system of notation concludes the piece. The upper staff features a melodic line that ends with a sustained note. The lower staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment until the final measure. The key signature is one sharp.
