1920 with the primary objective of sharing technical expertise and knowledge within Lloyd s Register Publications have consistently been released on a yearly basis with a brief interruption between 1938 and 1946 These publications serve as a key reference point for best practices and were initially reserved for internal use to maximise LR s competitive advantage Today the LRTA takes a fresh approach focusing on collaboration by combining professional expertise from across LRF Group to ensure a frequent output of fresh perspectives and relevant content The LRTA has evolved into a Group wide initiative that identifies captures and shares knowledge spanning various business streams and functions To support this modern approach the LRTA has adopted a new structure featuring representatives and senior governance across the business streams and the LR Foundation The Lloyd s Register Technical Association Papers should be seen as historical documents representing earlier viewpoints and are not reflective of current thinking and perspectives by the current LR Technical Association The Lloyd s Register Staff Association LRSA changed its name to the Lloyd s Register Technical Association LRTA in 1973
