Television before TV Anne-Katrin Weber,2025-10-01 Television before TV rethinks the history of interwar television by exploring the medium's numerous demonstrations organized at national fairs and international exhibitions in the late 1920s and 1930s Building upon extensive archival research in Britain Germany and the United States Anne Katrin Weber analyses the sites where the new medium met its first audiences She argues that public displays offered spaces where television's symbolic cultural political and social definitions were negotiated and eventually stabilized for the historian the exhibitions therefore constitute crucial events to understand not only the medium's pre war emergence but also its subsequent domestication in the post war years Designed as a transnational study her book highlights the multiple circulations of artefacts and ideas across borders of democratic and totalitarian regimes alike Richly illustrated with 100 photographs Television before TV finally emphasizes that even without regular programmes interwar television was widely seen
