The Routledge Handbook of Hispanic Applied Linguistics Manel Lacorte, 2014-09-19 This book provides a comprehensive overview of Hispanic applied linguistics allowing students to understand the field from a variety of perspectives and offering insight into the ever growing number of professional opportunities afforded to Spanish language program graduates The goal of this book is to re contextualize the notion of applied linguistics as simply the application of theoretical linguistic concepts to practical settings and to consider it as its own field that addresses language based issues and problems in a real world context The book is organized into five parts 1 perspectives on learning Spanish 2 issues and environments in Spanish teaching 3 Spanish in the professions 4 the discourses of Spanish and 5 social and political contexts for Spanish The book s all inclusive coverage gives students the theoretical and sociocultural context for study in Hispanic applied linguistics while offering practical information on its application in the professional sector Language Policy and Planning for the Modern

Olympic Games Jie Zhang, 2021-04-19 This book is the first longitudinal study that addresses language policy and planning in the context of a major international sporting event and examines the ideological political social cultural and economic effects of such context specific policy initiatives on contemporary China The book has important reference value for future research on language management at the supranational level and language services for linguistically complex events At the same time it presents some broader implications for current and future language policy makers language educators and learners particularly from non English speaking backgrounds Foreword by Ingrid Piller

The Routledge Handbook of the Sociopolitical Context of Language Learning Weixiao Wei, Der-lin Chao, 2025-03-11 The Routledge Handbook of the Sociopolitical Context of Language Learning is a compelling examination of how language education must adapt to our rapidly changing world This book explores the need for a fresh perspective on language learning moving beyond traditional methods to address the complexities of today s global landscape It delves into the impact of geopolitical shifts cultural exchanges and social justice issues on language education The book offers a blend of theoretical insights and practical approaches highlighting how language learning intersects with global politics and cultural diversity It examines case studies from various countries including Ukraine and Oman to reveal how language policies and practices are evolving in response to contemporary challenges By integrating themes of identity equity and intercultural understanding the book presents groundbreaking content that pushes for more inclusive and effective language education Ideal for educators policymakers and anyone interested in the future of language learning this book provides valuable perspectives on how to rethink and redesign language education to better serve a diverse and interconnected world It offers practical strategies and thought provoking analyses making it an essential resource for navigating the complexities of modern language teaching and learning

Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing Tony Silva, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2010-01-15 Theory has been used widely in the field of second language writing Second language writing specialists teachers researchers and administrators have yet to have an open and sustained conversation about what theory is how it works and more important how to practice theory Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing features fourteen essays by distinguished scholars in second language writing who explore various aspects of theoretical work that goes on in the field

Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia Kwok Kian-Woon, Roxana Waterson, 2012-01-01 Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia applies a new theoretical literature on social memory to remembered events in Burma Laos Vietnam Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia Highlighting connections between theorizing based on European examples and unresolved memory issues in East and Southeast Asia the authors show how comparative study of the interpenetration of politics and lived bodily experience of communal and personal memories and of dominant and suppressed narratives can yield insights into the human potential to become either perpetrators victims or bystanders The memories found within different groups in any society are open to negotiation suppression contestation or revision in the ever evolving politics of the present The searching and close grained analyses of contemporary issues found in the volume vividly illustrate the essentially plural and multivocal nature of social memories and demonstrate the intricate connection between transnational national and sub national politics Readers seeking a more nuanced and complex understanding of the past and of its continued relevance to the present and future will find here much food for thought

Interrogating Race and Racism in Postsecondary Language Classrooms Huo, Xiangying, Smith, Clayton, 2024-01-10 Postsecondary language classrooms perpetuate racial discrimination and linguistic inequalities posing a significant problem for racialized students who face institutional barriers and erasure of their linguistic identities Interrogating Race and Racism in Postsecondary Language Classrooms edited by Xiangying Huo and Clayton Smith offers a transformative solution by confronting deeply ingrained racism linguisticism and neo racism in language education Through an intersectional lens the book exposes these issues and provides practical strategies to combat injustice fostering inclusive learning environments With topics ranging from power dynamics to anti oppressive pedagogies the book equips readers with tools to effect meaningful change By amplifying marginalized voices and emphasizing anti racist and anti colonial practices it empowers educators and policymakers to dismantle oppressive systems This comprehensive resource has the potential to reshape language classrooms and create equitable educational landscapes that value diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds contributing to a more just and inclusive society
